ENTRANCE PUPILS TO BE PROMOTED UNDER NEW RULES

MacLean Inaugurates New System Broadening Promotion by Recommendation

Scholars to be Advanced by Board of Three Experts; Old Restrictions Off

Pupils attending British Columbia public schools will be promoted to the high schools this summer under entirely new regulations, it was announced at the Department of Education today. Under a system to be inaugurated by Hon. J. D. MacLean, Minister of Education, the practice of promoting pupils on the basis of their work during the entire school year instead of depending upon written examinations will be extended greatly in its scope. At the same time, Dr. MacLean is inaugurating new regulations designed to safeguard these promotions and prevent the advancement of unworthy pupils.

WIDER SCOPE
In future promotion by recommendation will apply to all schools with four divisions or more, provided a high school is in existence in the same district. At present this system applies only in schools with seven divisions or more. Where a public school has less than four divisions or is not adjacent to a high school pupils must write entrance examinations.

The principle of promotion on recommendation is being extended further by a new system which allows any number of pupils in a school to be advanced in this way. In the past only sixty per cent. of the pupils could move to the high school without examinations.

CUSTOMS INQUIRY COMMITTEE TO QUESTION OTTAWA CITIZEN EDITOR

Ottawa, April 30.—The editor of The Ottawa Daily Citizen is being summoned as a witness at the customs inquiry for examination with regard to an editorial in this morning's issue of that paper. A motion to this effect by Hon. R. B. Bennett, Conservative, Calgary West, was carried at this morning's sitting by a vote of seven to one after some discussion.

Mr. Bennett said the members of the committee in the discharge of their duties should be free from pressure by way of attacks. He desired to have the editor summoned because, said Mr. Bennett, he had intimated there were people being protected by the committee.

"If he has such knowledge we want it," said Mr. Bennett. "Is this a personal affair?" asked Chairman Mercier.

"No," said Mr. Bennett.

The City of Victoria will come into possession of fifty-three acres of land at the mouth of Goldstream, thus rounding out the Goldstream watershed area, as a result of action taken by Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands, to-day.

Following an inspection of this land in company with Mayor Pendergast and A. E. Todd yesterday, Mr. Pattullo agreed to recommend to the Government that the area be leased to the city for a long term of years at a purely nominal rental. Chicago, April 30.—The finality of a naval rule in the Samoan possessions of the United States will be tested in Federal court here May 17. Ripley of Richmond, Cal., a Samoan property owner, in his suit for $20,000 for false arrest against Commander Waldo Evans, of the United States Navy, commandant of the islands from 1920 to 1922.

Back of the issue, which is being tested for the first time, lies a background of attorneys' claims, of Samoan unrest and protest against United States rule which Ripley, a man of Samoan blood, seeks to air before a tribunal in the United States.

He Was Convicted of Having Liquor in Possession; Did Not Serve Sentence

Ottawa, April 30.—(Canadian Press)—Moses Aziz of Carleton Place, N.B., whose name has figured so prominently at the Commons committee's customs inquiry, is in jail at last. This forenoon W. F. Wilson, chief of the customs preventive service, read the committee a telegram from C. P. Stewart, special customs officer at Chatham, N.B., saying Aziz had been jailed at Bathurst, N.B., on instructions received from Ottawa.

Prior to reading that telegram to the committee, Mr. Wilson produced four others. The first two were addressed to Officer Stewart and H. C. Ramsey, solicitor of Bathurst, and instructed them to execute the warrant of commitment against Aziz immediately. These were sent two days ago. This morning Mr. Wilson had sent two other telegrams to the same individuals asking them why the instructions had not been obeyed.

Mr. Wilson said the telegrams ordering that Aziz be incarcerated had been sent on the instructions of the Ministers.

JAIL TERM

Moses Aziz, according to evidence before the committee, was convicted of having liquor in his possession, a second offence, fined and sentenced to three months in jail. He did not serve the sentence. Letters read showed Premier Veniot of New Brunswick and J. G. Robichaud, M.P. for Gloucester, N.B., had intervened in his behalf and Hon. G. H. Boulton admitted having taken action to delay execution of the warrant of commitment.

plosions Not Feared

Bakersfield, Cal., April 30.—Blazing broke out a night of rain squalls which washed out many of the retaining dykes, the oil in the Standard Oil Company's reservoir No. 34 here burned with undiminished fury to-day, threatening at any time to overflow the red hot rim of the 500,000-barrel capacity tank and spread a sea of fire among the other reservoirs on the tank farm.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE NAMES LEADERS FOR YEAR

C. P. W. Schwengers Again Fills Presidency; New Directors Take Office at Meeting This Afternoon

The directors of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce at their regular weekly meeting to-day unanimously re-elected all of their officers. C. P. W. Schwengers, president; B. C. Nicholas, vice-president, and F. Elworthy, secretary-treasurer, went back into office.

The directors rushed through their election proceedings, when E. W. Mayhew and A. E. Todd moved that all three of their officers should be returned to office.

A report of the election committee to the meeting gave the names of the new directors elected this year to a two-year term.

Owing to the resignation of J. H. Beatty, who could not undertake a director's duties, with the responsibilities of the Governor of District No. 1, International Rotary, J. L. Beckwith was elected to fill his place. The other new directors were J. C. Pendergast, H. Anselme, E. Tomlin, J. W. Spencer, R. W. Mayhew, A. E. Todd, S. J. Drake and J. H. Fletcher. G. B. Mitchell, reporting for the election committee, said that the increased poll which had sprung from seventy-eight votes in 1925 to 200 votes this year, was very gratifying. It showed a growing interest in the chamber's activities and affairs.

Mr. Nicholas, in the chair, voiced congratulations to the newly elected directors.

Mr. Crowe presented a petition revealing threats had been made against his life, to kidnap his children and to bomb his home. "The combination of high speed automobiles, sawed-off shotguns and high-powered rifles, operated to murder quickly and immediately escape, has produced in this community a reign of terror," the petition said.

Vancouver, April 30.—Carpenters here who do not show up for work to-morrow morning at the big downtown jobs will be locked out if they report for work on Monday morning, according to a statement issued to-day by the General Contractors' Association.

The carpenters' union proposed to put the five-day week into effect to-morrow morning and the men claim they will present a united front. The General Contractors' Association admits some of the contractors on small house jobs are willing to concede the five-day week, but declare not one of the contractors on the big jobs will give in.

POLICE BELIEVE WOMAN TOOK OWN LIFE YESTERDAY

Mrs. Florence Swift Disappeared From Home and Left Pathetic Note

Missing since yesterday morning, Mrs. Florence Swift, 1051 Yates Street, is thought by police here to have taken her own life in a fit of despondency. A note left at her home indicated that she was contemplating suicide. A thorough search has been instituted, but no trace of the woman has been found.

Yesterday morning Mrs. Swift left her home for her place of work at a downtown garage. He returned at the lunch hour, expecting to find his wife. She was always there at noon with the children's luncheon prepared, but yesterday was missing.

Before 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon Mrs. Swift had become alarmed and had notified the police. He hunted the neighborhood for his wife and found no trace of her. She had been sitting for some time, and he was afraid she might have fallen ill. It was when he found her pathetic little note that he became really frightened.

In this, her last message to her husband and children, Mrs. Swift said that she had been a worry and a burden to them long enough, that she was tired of life and that she was going to go away from it all. The police had the note in their possession, but returned it to the husband this morning.

About 10.30 o'clock yesterday morning a city workman on the corner of Dallas Road and Douglas Streets says he saw a woman answering Mrs. Swift's description sitting on a bench. She sat there so long that she aroused his suspicions. She must have been cold, he thought, for the morning was not mild. He had looked away for a time, and when he next glanced towards the bench the woman had disappeared. She was near the high bank of the Dallas River waterfront at the time, but was a considerable distance from the workman, who did not see her.

Liquor Sentence Appeal Succeeds

Vancouver, April 30.—Citing the recent pronouncement of a London, England, magistrate that it is permissible for a person to be intoxicated on his or her own doorstep, counsel for Barbara Campbell successfully appealed against her conviction for causing a disturbance while under the influence of liquor at Chase, B.C., on April 30.

Mr. Justice Morrison, in quashing Miss Campbell's conviction by justices of the peace at Chase, ruled in Supreme Court here to-day that the warrant of commitment failed to show the alleged offence had occurred in a public place.

Miss Campbell had been sentenced to three months' imprisonment.

GOAL MINERS IN BRITAIN REJECT OWNERS' OFFER

Last-minute Efforts Made to Prevent Tie-up of Mines
After the Truce Between Workers and Proprietors
Expires at Midnight; Ministry Takes Active Part;
No Further Government Subsidy Payments After
To-night.

London, April 30.—Representatives of the coal miners of Great Britain late to-day rejected a revised offer from the owners, rendering the situation of the industry blacker. The truce between the men and the owners will expire at midnight to-night. The Cabinet considered the matter at a special meeting and it was reported the negotiations might be re-opened.

King George returned to Buckingham Palace from Windsor. It is understood a Privy Council was held following his arrival.

London, April 30.—Sir Austen Chamberlain, Foreign Secretary, in an address before a convention of townsmen this afternoon said the coal dispute had reached a very serious position, according to information coming to him.

His statement coincided with reports coming from all quarters interested in the negotiations to prevent a coal tie-up beginning to-morrow. Premier Baldwin, with representatives of the mine owners and miners, to-day continued "eleventh-hour" efforts to find some solution of the difficulty, and to prevent an entire stoppage of the coal industry at midnight to-night, when the Government's subsidy to maintain the miners' wages at their present level will expire.

FOOD PLANS
The Government food control is considering what action will be necessary to insure the feeding of Britain's population in the event of a general strike.

Miners in various sections of the country are preparing to-day to cease work in case no settlement is reached. Some workers in mines in Northumberland brought their tools to the surface to-day when they finished the day's shift.

Mr. Justice Ives to-day in the Supreme Court here received a memorial from H. R. Jensen, K.C., setting out the nature of the specific particulars required of allegations made against the sitting member in the petition. The judge had adjourned the application on Monday. When Mr. Milner appeared in court to-day and renewed his application, Page was not represented and the judge stated the order would be made Tuesday, unless special reasons were shown by Page.

education had always impressed him, said the speaker.

Mr. Beatty referred at some length to the late Col. George Ham, whom he said, he was privileged to know both as an officer and as a friend. George Ham had scattered a world of happiness in his long walk through life.

Mr. Beatty referred to the fact that railway and newspaper men had many interests in common. There existed no other class of worker more closely in touch or of necessity more soundly informed as to the needs and problems of the country's industrial life, and each as he built up his business on a solid foundation according to the actual needs of the community, served, was building up the country, and in so doing, said Mr. Beatty, it was only right that each should give to the other's point of view a full measure of sympathetic study and consideration.

APPEALS AIDED

One of the things that had always impressed the speaker was the almost universal willingness of the Canadian press to get behind appeals that must be made to the public and its humanitarian instincts on behalf of works of charity, civic benefit and education, and to bring the full force of its very great influence to bear to have conditions complained of alleviated.

Mr. Beatty instanced the appeal recently made for the sick children's hospital in Toronto, and that for general hospital support by way of taxation of the National Council of Education in Montreal. The recent convention at Montreal was another outstanding example. It had opened in an atmosphere of misunderstanding on the part of some French-Canadian fellow citizens. As soon, however, as the proceedings opened and the discussions indicated the fundamental soundness and breadth of view of those discussing the questions, the atmosphere, under the leadership of the French and English press, entirely changed, and the convention became one of the greatest importance and was most a conspicuous success.

"I can say to you with the utmost sincerity," said Mr. Beatty, "that when questions such as these arise I have never in my own experience known a case where any newspaper of standing, no matter how strong its views on subjects which are political, did not get behind the movement to the full extent of its powers, and this leads me to assume that when the merits of policies are not clouded by political prejudice or bias, the press of this country not only are the aids of the citizen but are the best citizens of the country."

STUDY IS URGED

The speaker made an appeal for expert study and investigation on the part of newspapers of economic problems that beset the country. It will not do, he said, to let the press be the viewpoint of this or that interest, or this or that political theory. Nothing less than economic facts could be considered, and the more highly expert criticism, and more deeply all their sides are explored, the more soundly based and successful will be the resultant solution of the problems.

It was not the speaker's place to talk on political subjects, and he would not, therefore, say anything about tariff. This much he did say: That if he were to be confronted by a low tariff man and a high tariff man, he would be disposed to say to them: "Gentlemen, fix it up between yourselves, but fix it and make it reasonably stable."

INDUSTRIAL GROWTH

"I do not believe Canada's industrial expansion need necessarily be confined to one section of the country. There is nothing in Canada's development or in that of the great republic to the south of us, the character of whose commercial progress is apt to find a counterpart in the progress of this country, that would justify us in assuming that our Middle West and our Far West would not show the same variety of industrial activity as that which exists in middle and far western states. We speak of industrial expansion, and we know it will provide a balanced prosperity which this country needs, and which has been such an important factor in the recent prosperous years which the United States has enjoyed."

RAILWAY AFFAIRS

Mr. Beatty lightly touched on the railway problem, which, he said, was difficult to deal with free from prejudice, because of railway history and the antagonism which politics, whether they related to private enterprises or public enterprises, had provoked in certain parts of the country. But the railways of both kinds, he said, had many problems that did not depend for their solution on the accident of ownership, and the most important of these was the attitude of the public towards them, an attitude which could be very strongly influenced by the press of the country.

"We say to you, for example," he said, "that we are entitled to a fair wage. At no time since I have had a knowledge of these questions have the railway companies had the temerity to ask for more than that."

J. H. FORTIER SPOKE

J. H. Fortier, president of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association and publisher of The Quebec City L'Evenement, said Canadian newspapers were ever ready to get behind all worthy efforts and were diligent in educating the public to the social duty of union between all classes, races and creeds. Mr. Fortier's chief message was an appeal for protection for Canadian enterprises, not so much in the interest of private corporations, as in the interests of Canadian workers, Canadian homes and Canadian industry.

The retiring president of the Canadian Daily Newspapers Association, George E. Scurie, of The Toronto Mail and Empire, presided.

Frank Carroll of The Quebec City Telegraph-Chronicle, president-elect of the association, addressed the meeting briefly.

Third Western Golf Tournament at 'Peg

The tentative date for the tournament was fixed for the week ending July 25. Play will be over the local Elmhurst course. Events will include the Western Canada Amateur and open championships.

Special prizes will be offered to attract the best of the professional players to Manitoba for the tournament.

Our Animal Friends

Written for the S.P.C.A.

My horse! O friend with velvet nose,
That looks into my heart with softest eyes,
Staunch in the desert heat and mountain snow,
To me no friendship holds more tender ties.

My dog! O friend with welcome bark,
Whose love grows deeper as the years
Along my path and horizons look dark,
And guards with watchful eyes while I am asleep.

O Kitty! sleek, so soft and warm,
Whose needle claws fast kindly on my hand,
With gentle purrs, I find in thy frail form
That same sweet charm of love I understand.

The monkey with her human gaze,
And nestling baby crooning in her arms,
Half utters words. Who knows? perhaps she prays
And sighs for coral strands and waving palms.

Their Mute Appeal
When shallow friends depart, we still remain
In friendship bound, till severed by the grave.
We read your heart and share your early pain
With equal love alike to prince and slave.

Ill paid our love, that Science inhumane
Should rend our living heart, himself to make,
The same Creator of your thoughts and words
Gave love and song to animals and birds.

ENTRANCE PUPILS TO BE PROMOTED UNDER NEW RULE

To prevent abuses of the system, promotion will not be made in future by public school principals alone but by a board consisting of one of these principals, the principal of the adjacent high school and the municipal or provincial inspector.

CLASS-ROOM RECORDS

These changes were summarized in a statement given out at the Department of Education to-day as follows: "The examination system of testing pupils' fitness for admission to High School has been in use in Canada for over fifty years. From time to time discussions arise at teachers' conventions and other educational gatherings regarding the advisability and not his performance at an examination, should be the factor to decide whether or not he should receive promotion. A pupil's attitude towards his school, his continuous effort from day to day, it is said, give a better idea of his acquisitions than the results of the examination. There is some force in this, and the Department of Education of British Columbia has for several years tried to give due weight to this argument. More than 2,500 pupils are promoted to High School each year on the recommendation of teachers. It is felt, however, that a large number of the smaller schools are in charge of young teachers who have not yet had sufficient teaching experience to determine whether or not their pupils have reached the educational standard necessary for successful work in high school. The Department of Education has therefore decided to extend the privilege of promotion on recommendation to all entrance pupils attending public schools of four or more divisions in districts where high schools are in operation. Promotion to high schools in future will be made on the recommendation of a committee composed of the principal of the school, the principal of the high school, the municipal inspector (if one is employed by the district) and the provincial school inspector.

MAY WRITE TESTS

"The committee will look into the attainments of each of the pupils and send to the department a list of those who are considered qualified to take up high school studies. Entrance pupils whose class-room record is not of a sufficiently satisfactory character to justify the committee in recommending them for promotion may, if they so desire, sit for the departmental examination. Pupils in attendance at schools in districts where high schools are not in operation and pupils attending schools of fewer than four divisions will, before they are granted entrance certificates, be required to sit for examination in arithmetic, geography, grammar and composition, penmanship, dictation and spelling and drawing. To be successful a candidate must obtain an average of at least sixty per cent on the five papers and satisfy the department that he has a good knowledge of the work prescribed in English literature, British history, Canadian history, Nature study and hygiene.

"Under the existing regulation which is now being superseded the most proficient pupils in the entrance classes of schools of seven or more divisions were promoted on recommendation. The other pupils of the school, as well as those from schools of less than seven divisions, were required to sit for examination."

Chemainus

Special to The Times
Chemainus, April 30.—A special meeting of the Boy Scout Association was held in the parlor of Calvary Baptist Church. In the absence of the president, Rev. E. M. Cook, Mr. Pritchard took the chair. The meeting was called to determine whether the scout entertainment should take place May 12 owing to Scoutmaster J. Robarge leaving the district. It was decided to carry on for the concert and Mrs. Olsen, Mr. and Mrs. Pritchard were appointed a committee to help with the rehearsals. Deep regret was expressed at losing Mr. Robarge, and hopes expressed that some one would volunteer as acting scoutmaster. Mr. J. Robarge, scoutmaster of the first Chemainus Troop Boy Scouts, as a last treat took all the boys on a hike to Miller Creek. A very pleasant feature of the day was the presentation of a compass by Ross Robertson on behalf of Boy Scouts and Wolf Cubs.

An enjoyable farewell tea was given Wednesday for Miss Aird, who is leaving for Scotland next week at the home of Mrs. John Humbird. Mrs. Humbird, on behalf of the under-mentioned ladies, presented a very handsome suitcase to Miss Aird. Mrs. Humbird, Mrs. Aird, Mrs. J. Taylor, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Rivett, Mrs. Mac, Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Koch, Mrs. G. Read, Mrs. E. M. Cook, Mrs. Daniels, Mrs. Smiley, Mrs. Laidlaw, Mrs. Stubbs, Mrs. Groscup, Mrs. Cummins, Mrs. Gilroy, Mrs. Spurling, Mrs. Pritchard, Miss Byrd and Miss Burnside.

A pleasant time was passed at the home of Mrs. J. Taylor last evening when the guest of honor was Miss Aird. Delicious refreshments were served during the evening. Those present were: Miss Aird, Mrs. Aird, Mrs. Cook, Mrs. Craig, Mrs. M. F. Halhed, Mrs. Laidlaw, Mrs. G. Read, Mrs. Byrd, Miss Burnside, and others. During the evening Miss Byrd sang some delightful songs.

Mr. and Mrs. Massey have left the district to live in Vancouver.

Messrs. H. W. Jones and Horace Jones of Nanaimo were visitors to Chemainus yesterday.

ALASKA FLIGHT WAS PERILOUS ONE

Wilkins and Eielson Near Death During Fairbanks-
Barrow Plane Journey

New York, April 30.—Capt. G. H. Wilkins, who has been missing since April 15, sent word by radio yesterday that he was safe at Point Barrow, the advance base of the Detroit Arctic Expedition. He will attempt to return at once in the aeroplane to the Fairbanks, Alaska, base of the expedition, according to dispatches to the North American Newspaper Alliance.

Capt. Wilkins' message stated he and his pilot, Ben Eielson, had rescued Point Barrow safely on the same day they had left Fairbanks with a cargo of freight on their third trip to the advance base. No word had been received at Fairbanks to indicate their whereabouts.

PERILOUS TRIP
Since they carried an unusually heavy cargo their trip was the most hazardous they had yet made over the perilous Arctic foot peaks of the Endicott Mountains. Unable to reach an altitude of more than 9,000 feet, the fliers had to weave a passage through the mountains in a heavy fog.

Once the swirls of mist cleared just in time to show a mountain side ahead and the plane's right landing wheel missed a snowbank by inches.

RADIO FAILED
Arriving at Barrow, they were cut off from communication with the outside world when their radio failed.

They were held at Barrow because of storms. Capt. Wilkins, however, attempted three times to hop off for Fairbanks, but had to turn back twice because of a split propeller and once by low hanging clouds in the Endicott mountains.

In a message to Major Thomas G. Langhiser, second in command of the expedition, Capt. Wilkins advised him not to leave Fairbanks with the three-motored plane until he should receive favorable weather reports, or unless the Alaskan, Capt. Wilkins' plane should fail to return.

FIRE IN FORESTS OF SOUTHERN B.C.
Nelson, B.C., April 30.—Kelly's lumber camp at Park Siding has had a close call from a forest fire, but is now apparently safe. All the lumber crews of that area are fighting the fire and it is nearly under control.

A fire in the Castlegar area has been successfully headed off from the highway bridge at Pass Creek and is under control.

For four successive days at Nelson, the mercury has reached 50 degrees and the bush is very dry, but rain fell in parts of this area last night.

Fire Prevention Association Meets

Ottawa, April 30.—To influence the mind of a child at an early age as possible is to obtain the maximum of educational influence. Consequently, to educate the people of Canada to a knowledge of the grave extent of easily preventable loss by fire is a prime necessity. To give attention to the family, where the child is being raised, and the school, which is merely a family enlarged, is to take advantage of the scope for the very best fire preventive education obtainable.

This was in part the message of the president, Sir George E. Foster, to the delegates at the opening meeting of the Dominion Fire Prevention Association here yesterday.

Assurance was given by Col. J. A. Cooper, president of the Canadian Motion Picture Distributors' Association, that film companies would gladly co-operate with the association.

Speaker Supports Fundamentalism

Toronto, April 30.—Speaking at the convention of the World's Christian Fundamental Association here last night, Dr. Arthur Brown of Vancouver declared the geological theory that strata and rock formations showed definite ages for definite kinds of animal remains was "all bunk." He stated the strata were all mixed up and there was no way of proving from rock formations (the Bible and the Gospel and said the age of miracles was not past.

Dr. Brown appealed for a return to simple faith in the fundamentals of the Bible and the Gospel and said the age of miracles was not past.

SIXTY-SIX DIVORCES GRANTED AT OTTAWA

IMPROVED TRADE BRINGING STRENGTH

In Speech in Vancouver G. G. McGeer Deals With Canada's Growing Prosperity

Vancouver, April 30.—The best evidence of Canada's returning prosperity, said G. G. McGeer, K.C., addressing the Vancouver South Liberal Association here last evening, was the favorable trade balance experienced by the country last year, when the exports exceeded the imports by $102,000,000. The importance of this was best realized by comparing the figure with that of 1921, the last year of the Conservative administration, when the balance was $29,000,000 against the Dominion, he said.

This improvement in the foreign trade of the country was reflected in its internal condition as was evidenced by the second surplus of $22,000,000 run up by the Canadian National Railways, in contrast with the $70,000,000 deficit of 1921.

B.C.'S INTEREST

Mr. McGeer recalled that during the last election campaign he had stated that if elected he intended to assume little responsibility for the general administration of the country's affairs, but intended to devote himself to representing the interests of the people of Vancouver and British Columbia at Ottawa.

In contrast with this he drew attention to the course followed by his opponent, Hon. H. H. Stevens, M.P., who was "spending his energies in investigating the port of Montreal."

"When do you ever hear the voice of Mr. Stevens or his Tory colleagues from this city railing their voices to the claims of this city at Ottawa?" he asked. "Mr. Stevens finds it pays him better to cater to his big friends in the East by devoting his attention to Montreal."

MARITIME RIGHTS

The members from the Maritime Provinces, he stated, had not forgotten their obligations to their own communities, but were pressing their claims for Maritime Rights so vigorously that they had a royal commission detailed to investigate their grievances.

"Your members would be serving your interests better if they would insist on Maritime rights when they are at Ottawa," declared Mr. McGeer.

MUSSOLINI STATES METHODS UNCHANGED

Rome, April 30.—Fascism will continue to rule Italy with its iron hand, Premier Mussolini declared at a special session of the Chamber of Deputies yesterday, devoted to a thanksgiving ceremony for his escape in the recent attempt on his life. "In no case, or for no reason, will Fascism change its programme," the Premier said. "Everything at this moment is pre-arranged."

New Westminster Estimates For Year Total $1,054,443

New Westminster, April 30.—Estimates totaling $1,054,443 were approved at a special meeting of the City Council of New Westminster, last night, being an increase of slightly more than $50,000 over 1925. The tax rate is expected to be decided on at a meeting next Monday.

The council decided to insure the new market, which opened to-day, for $30,000 and $3,200 on fixtures.

Man Convicted of Having Killed His Aged Mother

Quebec, April 30.—A jury in the Court of King's Bench yesterday found Eugene Bignoutte of this city guilty of having murdered his seventy-nine-year-old mother on the morning of November 23 last. He will be sentenced by Chief Justice Lemieux to-morrow.

GREATER MIGRATION WITHIN THE EMPIRE URGED IN BRITAIN

London, April 30 (Canadian Press Cable).—The slow increase in the population of the Dominions was deplored by Sir John Penderfether, Conservative, in the House of Commons yesterday in speaking in support of a resolution moved by Robert Edmondson, Conservative, urging the need of utilizing every opportunity for developing trade within the Empire. He cited figures showing a big falling off in the migration to Canada in the last two years as compared with the pre-war migration.

The first step that should be taken in the matter of migration, Sir John continued, was to train the industrial people of Great Britain in rural occupation.

Sir Philip Cunliffe-Lister, President of the Royal Trade Union Congress, expressed sympathy with the resolution, which was carried.

F. Carrel Heads Newspaper Group

Toronto, April 30.—Frank Carrel of the Quebec City Telegraph-Chronicle, vice-president of the Canadian Daily Newspapers Association for the last year, was elected president of the organization here yesterday. E. H. Macklin of The Manitoba Free Press, Winnipeg, was chosen vice-president.

Western directors are: E. H. Macklin, Manitoba Free Press, Winnipeg; Burford Hoke, Regina Leader-Post; John M. Inrie, Edmonton Journal; and R. J. Cromie, Vancouver Sun.

It was reported the membership was now eighty out of a total of ninety-eight offices of all descriptions in Canada.

The financial report showed the association to be in good condition.

PLACE OF TRIAL MAY BE CHANGED

Vancouver, April 30.—Change of venue for the trial of Hon. William Sloan's $50,000 libel action against Major-General A. D. McRae from Nanaimo was mooted in the Supreme Court yesterday by A. H. MacNeill, K.C., defence counsel, when J. W. deB. Farris, K.C., on behalf of the plaintiff, Provincial Secretary and Minister of Mines, applied for a special jury.

Mr. MacNeill requested an adjournment on the ground that he wished to communicate with his client, who has been touring the southern part of the United States and was expected to arrive to-day in Chicago. He said it might be necessary to make an application for a change of venue from Nanaimo.

Presumably a change would result in trial at the next nearest place, either Victoria or Vancouver.

Mr. Farris pressed for an order for trial at Nanaimo, while Mr. MacNeill contended that might embarrass him until he had an opportunity to consult General McRae.

Mr. Justice Morrison, accordingly, adjourned the matter until after counsel should return from the Nelson assizes in about two weeks.

Hon. William Sloan has given notice of trial for the Nanaimo assizes on June 1.

THE WATER QUESTION

THERE IS NOT MUCH DOUBT THAT the plan recommended by the water committee for the sale of water to Saanich will be approved by the City Council when it is submitted to it next Monday. It already has been approved by the Council of Saanich, and the way has thus been opened for the settlement of a matter which has been disturbing the relations between the two municipalities for a long time. Under this plan Saanich will contract with the city on the basis of monthly bulk consumption, with a rebate of twenty per cent. on the amount used in excess of 15,000,000 gallons, thirty per cent. on the amount over 35,000,000 gallons.

This proposal is expected to provide special terms for the users of water for agricultural purposes. This is an important consideration which concerns this city at least as much as it concerns Saanich. In its own interest, if for no other object, Victoria should do everything within its power to stimulate the production of the fertile acres in the peninsula, and the provision of special terms in the price of water for agricultural purposes is one way of doing it.

The cost of these concessions to the taxpayers of Victoria is trivial, particularly in the light of the advantages derived by them from the promotion of production in the neighboring district. This principle should be applied to the encouragement of other forms of industry wherever possible. The best way to bring taxes down in Victoria is to create fresh sources of wealth and put more money in circulation, and cheap water is very essential to the development of these conditions.

SELF-DENIAL WEEK

NEXT WEEK THE SALVATION ARMY will make an appeal throughout Canada for its self-denial fund. The excellent work this organization does needs no detailed explanation. The army makes a dollar perform one hundred per cent. service in every necessitous case it deals with. Its officers are specially trained for public welfare duties. They combine the kindness which has endeared them to many a waif and unfortunate with sound judgment and wise discrimination. These are some of the reasons why Self-Denial weeks hitherto have brought generous contributions and why it is hoped that next week will enable the Army to reach its objective.

In common with the rest of the cities and towns of the Dominion, Victoria will expect to return its quota to headquarters. Local officers recognize the many demands that are made on the public purse; but they are convinced that the people of this city know them well enough and understand sufficiently about their work to give them a good return in kind next week.

THE "OXFORD ACCENT"

A DEBATE ON THE PRONUNCIATION of English between Mr. St. John G. Ervine, the well-known dramatist, and Mr. Nigel Playfair, an equally well-known London actor-manager, was bound to come sooner or later. The former made his initial attack on "Englishmen who corrupt their glorious mother tongue" some time ago in the columns of The Observer. On that occasion he took exception to Mr. Playfair's contention that it was desirable that actors should speak with what he calls a "neutral voice." On Wednesday night they debated the whole subject in public in London.

In his early article, which dealt with "the dreadful malady known as the 'Oxford voice,'" Mr. Ervine took a particular dig at those "murderers of English" who would not doubt consider this to be the "polite" or "refined" voice. He was called over the coals by numerous correspondents because he said the Pope had declared that he invariably understood English more easily when spoken by Americans than by English people. One woman, however—most of those who agreed with Mr. Ervine's views were men—related how she had heard girls in Scotland saying "fave" for "five." This was no surprise to the enemy of the "polite" voice, and he came right back and said that these girls "were either educated in England or were pretending that they were" because "all the pretentious 'politeness,' wherever we hear it, is a sign of snobbery and ill-breeding or, at best, of slovenly education."

All will agree with Mr. Ervine that the English language is a beautiful language, and "we shall be poor servants of our race if we allow it to be corrupted by empty-minded snobs." He cites many examples of insults to it and selects the third collect of Evensong as the effort of one curate he had heard just prior to the writing of his article. Here is the phonetic interpretation:

Leten ow deukness, we besee thee, oo Law, and bay that gray mobby denef us fawn all pahls and dangahs of thesee days for the jahv of Theay owvly Son, ah Saveriah, Jesus Chrest.

When he deals specifically with the "neutral voice" which Mr. Playfair favors for the actor Mr.

Ervine wants to know why, and he inquires by way of example, it should be necessary for the Scotchman to say "warrior" when he means "water," and for the Englishman to say "wotta" when he means "water." The proper pronunciation of "water" is "water," and, to quote further, "anyone who pronounces it otherwise is either tone-deaf or a silly snob." One particular case has apparently roused the ire of Mr. Ervine. An address on pronunciation, broadcast over Europe recently by Mr. Lloyd James, was followed by ten minutes reading by somebody else from Tess of the D'Urbervilles, "and the world heard a succession of 'heahs' and 'theyahs,' and so on."

The comments of a gentleman from Leeds, who had been following the discussion on the maltreatment of English, amused Mr. Ervine when he gave his reason for absenting himself from Church as follows: "The last time I went the 'pale young curate' took for his text: 'He that hath ears to hear let him hear,' which was rendered thus: 'He that heth yares to yare let him yare.' In the course of the sermon was the sentence, 'And Peter's wife lay sick of the fever.' It was rendered as follows: 'End Petah's wafe lay seek of the fevah.' I have not been to Church since. I read The Observer instead."

Mr. Ervine is apprehensive lest there shall be a uniform pronunciation all over the British Isles which will be so "refined" as to become utterly toneless. He concludes by saying "go and listen to one actor who knows his job, and then go and listen to one who is very 'refined.'" Sir Johnston Forbes-Robertson, or Mr. Henry Ainley, Mr. Ervine says, delivers the English language in a way which makes you proud to have it for your mother-tongue, "but some of the young players make you feel that you must instantly go and become a naturalized Bash-Bazook."

AN ANXIOUS TIME FOR BRITAIN

JUST AS GREAT BRITAIN HAD REDUCED the number of her unemployed to below the million mark for the first time since the situation became acute after the war, she finds herself faced with the prospect of an industrial conflict that promises serious economic consequences if other trades unions should strike with the miners.

At this writing the position is grave. The miners can go to work to-morrow if they will agree to accept the new or lower wage scales which the operators already have posted. This the employees refuse to do. It had been suggested that if the miners would agree to work eight instead of seven hours a day the operators would consent to permit the old wage scale to remain operative. This eleventh-hour ray of hope seems to have disappeared.

Repeated industrial dislocation is a serious matter for Britain. It hinders her economic recovery and her trade rivals profit by it. But there will be a good deal of public sympathy for the coal miners. For years they were shockingly paid and their living conditions were abominable. Matters improved after the revelations of the Sankey Commission a few years ago. Their lot, however, is still an unenviable one and disproportionately worse than that of those engaged in other callings.

In the past the workers and employers have been able to find a compromise before very serious damage has been done. No doubt this eventually will happen again. Meanwhile the Government and the general public are going through an anxious time.

SEPTEMBER SWIMS AT PORT NELSON

THE MORNING PAPER TO-DAY PUBLISHED a map of the Port Nelson terminus of the Hudson Bay Railway in company with illustrations that give the reader some idea of the country and conditions surrounding the outlet for the project now to be completed. Of particular interest is an illustration which shows Premier Bracken of Manitoba, Mr. R. A. Hoey, former Progressive M.P. for Springfield, and General Paterson, swimming in the bay at Port-Nelson in September of 1924.

Attention is drawn to this scene in the descriptive matter at the foot of the map and illustrations because it serves as a "photographic refutation of the belief that the waters of Hudson Bay are frozen almost all the year round." In fact this would seem to indicate that the ice was not due for several weeks after the picture was taken.

It will be recalled that, after expert engineering information had been obtained, Hon. Frank Cochrane, Minister of Railways and Canals in the Government of Mr. Robert Borden, selected Port Nelson as the terminus of the railway in preference to Port Churchill. This is why much of the $20,000,000 spent on the project by that Government and Mr. Meighen's Administration was spent on those terminals.

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY

BLUNDERING LEADERSHIP
From The Halifax Chronicle
It is now apparently recognized even by some of the Opposition at Ottawa that their party leaders blundered again in forcing a fight in West Middlesex where many of their own party felt that by ordinary political courtesy Hon. J. C. Elliott should have been allowed an acclamation upon assuming a Cabinet portfolio. Of course it was their right to nominate a candidate and to contest the by-election, but as a matter of tactics, Mr. Meighen would have shown better judgment had the new Minister not been opposed, and as it turned out, the result has been disastrous for the Opposition. An Ontario constituency has given an overwhelming verdict against the Conservative Party, and Mr. Meighen's prestige has suffered another blow. The verdict is so decisive that no comfort can be extracted for the Opposition. Not only was the Liberal majority the largest in the history of the constituency, it came from every municipality and from all but a handful of polling subdivisions. Town and County united to swell the Liberal vote.

BURNS MEMORIAL

To the Editor:—I wish to draw the attention of the mayor, aldermen, particularly Ald. Marchant, chairman of the parkway committee, to the only drinking fountain in Beacon Hill Park. I think Ald. Marchant and the then Ald. Humphrey were deputized to select the site, when the Scots' Societies proposed to erect a Burns Memorial and drinking fountain.

It is humiliating for a visiting Scot or an admirer of Burns to see the memorial in such a disgraceful, ignominious state.

IT IS ACCESSIBLE

To the Editor:—While we appreciate the fact that a newspaper is not responsible for statements which are made to its representatives, we feel that it is its duty to make every effort to verify information which might in any way jeopardize the tourist or other trade of any part of British Columbia, and especially from a Victoria point of view, of Vancouver Island.

Neither the interests of Victoria nor the island were served by the report printed in a recent edition of your paper and ascribed to Professor R. S. Baker. This eminent researcher after truth is stated to have said the Campbell River is almost impassable, the roads are now practically impassable. It is an axiom that any ordinary gravel road "might be better," but the Island Highway as far as Courtenay is in excellent condition, and to state that the road from here to Campbell River is impassable is ridiculous. Stages have been running all winter, and cars travel both ways regularly, while Campbell River dances are frequently patronized by Courtenay residents who look on the journey to the pavilion and return even in the small hours, as part of the evening's pleasure.

We will thank you to furnish this information to your readers. Campbell River is just as accessible, the fish are just as plentiful, and the Elk Falls just as beautiful as they have ever been, and the upper Vancouver Island district is ready to welcome every visitor and prospective resident who knows enough to avoid throwing away live cigar butts and to put their money in the bank.

ADORNING OUR HIGHWAYS

To the Editor:—In the hope that it may dissuade the Publicity Bureau from its campaign of indiscriminate scattering of seeds along our roadsides I quote, in part, from a letter received by the president of this institute from Mr. John Davidson, assistant professor of botany, University of British Columbia, acknowledging a package of seeds obtained from a noxious weed distributing them along the highways.

"I was glad to receive your letter of March 30 enclosing a package of seeds from Cobble Hill. I may say that I have absolutely no sympathy with this case of so-called beautification of our public highways. I prefer as a naturalist to retain the natural beauty of the country retained."

"As a botanist who has specialized on the flora of British Columbia for about fifteen years, it seems to emphasize the ignorance common to the average person regarding the wealth and beauty of our native plants. We have so many plants which are characteristic of British Columbia that can be grown in masses along our road sides. The flowering currant, mock orange, and many other shrubs are grown in gardens in Europe, and when visitors see them wild in this Province they will inquire if they are native, and because we can answer in the affirmative the visitors feel that the natural vegetation aids in beautifying the country.

"I would rather see our public highways with dogwood, red-berried elder, flowering shrub, including salmonberry, Oregon grape, cascara, etc., permanent; some of them evergreens, some deciduous, giving us the richness of your foliage in the Spring, and autumnal tints of yellow and scarlet in the Fall. Then we could proudly draw the attention of our visitors to the beauty of our highways."

"Apart altogether from my views as a botanist, it has always been considered a dangerous thing to introduce exotic plants or animals and allow them to run loose in the country. In every case such introductions were done with some good purpose in view, but the result has been complications which offset the good they did. We must keep in mind that nature has things pretty well balanced in this country, and if we upset the balance the best thing we can do is to help nature to put things right again. Rabbits were introduced into Australia to provide food in regions where, food was scarce; rabbits are now a plague, doing more damage than good, and costing the people of that country large sums to keep them down, because the introduction of the rabbit upset the balance of nature."

"In Central and Western Canada a big drive was made against coyotes and hawks, which resulted in the rabbits and gophers becoming a menace to agriculture, causing large sums to be expended as bounties for the destruction of a plague. All these similar drives against crows in Southern Ontario caused an increase in the number of locusts, assuming the locusts were not exterminated. All these are instances of upsetting the balance of nature by people who did so with good intentions, but having no idea what the final result would be."

"This problem of the introduction of foreign plants is, from a naturalist's point of view, liable to cause complications. They may prove to be food for some of our native pests, or they may overrun the country and make other native plants a nuisance; such as the people of New Westminster found when some one started broom on the boulevard. Now they wish they could get rid of it, as it is cropping up on the boulevards and other undesirable places. These introduced plants may act as hosts of fungus diseases."

"I observe seeds in the package of what appear to be some of the Cruciferae. Many of the Cruciferae belong to this family, and the chief harm they do lies in their acting as hosts for fungi which attack agricultural crops."

"I heartily approve of the beautification of our public highways, particularly in places where the creation of the highway has marred the natural beauty along the roadside. I admire the enthusiasm of all public organizations willing to assist in such laudable work, but I think they are making a great mistake in scattering seeds of plants which may be found in any part of the northern hemisphere. I think they would attain their object without causing complications by the use of seeds of native plants, and visitors will see in British Columbia something different to what they are accustomed to in other parts of the Dominion."

"I feel glad that the farmers' institutes are alive to this danger of introducing foreign seeds scattered along our roadsides, where they can spread into adjacent land, and I would be glad to hear that the publicity organizations have revised their method and that they will devote their time to the dispersal of seeds of native shrubs and trees."

(Signed) "JOHN DAVIDSON,"
Assistant Professor of Botany.
Perhaps, after reading the above, those who have been contemplating following the advice of the Publicity Bureau in scattering seeds against it, and it is sincerely to be hoped that those who have unfortunately done anything along the line suggested have done no permanent harm to the country.

Health and Disease

WHAT IS A DOCTOR?

The proprietor of "the greatest show on earth" once said that the American people liked to be humbugged. A great many others have taken advantage of this peculiarity which incidentally is not common to Americans alone, by starting all sorts of cults and "systems," the main purpose of which is to convert human life into cash. Just as a hungry pike will jump for a tiny minnow, so it appears, will human nature respond to any attractive bait in the form of an offer to cure sickness by some new "system."

Doctors are accused of being narrow and selfish because of their efforts to put impostors out of business. It is true that altruism is not the only reason for their efforts to stop people from sacrificing themselves on the altars of the false gods of medical quackery. Put yourself in the doctor's place: You have spent years and some thousands of dollars, acquiring medical education and experience; someone who calls himself a doctor, but whose only training came from a few weeks spent in reading a book with a new and impressive name, opens up in your town; you see patients to whom you have given your best efforts flocking to his office; some of them could not afford to pay your bills, but the newcomers demand cash down and get it. Would you welcome him with open arms? Few people stop to think that the "systems" which are the basis of the various cults are not secrets and that, if they contained anything of value, they would be included in medical college courses.

In one respect the doctor works at a disadvantage. Whether wisely or not, the medical profession has always taken the position that it is unethical and undignified for a physician to advertise, and that real ability will stand on its own merits. The quack keeps his pretensions always in the limelight, where they are bound to impress those who feel much and think little. Yet, few of their patrons would like to live where this was the only kind of medical service obtainable.

All physicians are not equally well trained or skilled. As in every other profession or class there are a few who are dishonest and self-seeking, a few who are hard and grasping. Over against this admission consider these facts: The average span of life is shorter in the medical profession than in any other; doctors rarely leave barely enough to keep their families from want; the medical profession as a whole has always given active support to public health work designed to wipe out the very diseases which have made doctors necessary.

"SCOT FREE"

This familiar expression has no reference to Scotland, as is sometimes believed. It is derived from the old legal action "Scot and Lot," the former being a corruption of the Anglo-Saxon word "scot," to pay, and the latter meaning a tribute allotted to every man according to his means. Rarely a man got off "scot free" in olden times.

THRILLS RUN THROUGH GREAT MYSTERY PLAY UNTIL THE CLIMAX

A very famous actor who was recently in Victoria had a word of praise for audiences of the Island City, and the spontaneous way in which Victorians respond to anything prepared for their entertainment in which really good and conscientious work has been done is acknowledged by local showmen. It is the co-operation and unrestrained enjoyment of "the fourth dimension," as the people who sit in front of the footlights have been called, that are making this week's production at the Coliseum such a notable event. There is a thrill right through "The Bat" which grows until the climax at the final curtain.

Gray gave a chance to do his love-making in the swirl of a rushing river. He and Esther Ralston journeyed to Ocala, Fla., for the filming of this picture. On the banks of Silver Springs Run, in the heart of the Florida jungle, they enacted scenes in which Gray put Miss Ralston through physical training scenes prior to her entry in a bathing beauty contest.

After the gymnastics Miss Ralston made a fancy dive into the river and Gray, in his enthusiasm, followed her, natty white sports clothes and all. But in spite of the handicap of shoes and other encumbrances, he outdistanced the swimmer, brought her to the rim of a pool and exacted his reward in a kiss. It's all part of the story which Townsend Martin wrote especially for the screen, involving Miss Centerville's (Esther Ralston) efforts to win the title of "Miss America" at the Atlantic City bathing beauty show.

VETERANS ARE ACTORS IN DOMINION SHOWING OF WARTIME FILM PLOT

Disabled veterans had their day in pictures at the Paramount studio while Director Edward Sutherland was making "Behind the Front," a comedy of the war, which is playing at the Dominion Theatre to-day. The film, which was shot in France, shows the life of a soldier in the trenches, and the hardships and dangers of war.

BUCK JONES AT HIS BEST IN COLUMBIA FILM SHOWING TO-DAY

Buck Jones, the popular western star will be seen at his best in the William Fox production "The Desert's Price," in which he will appear at the Coliseum Theatre to-day. Buck does some wonderful riding as well as some very fine acting in the production. There is never a moment that the action lags, one thrill following another in quick succession from the first flash to the last.

Supporting Jones is a well-chosen cast which includes Ernest Gilber, Edna Marion, Ernest Buttner, Arthur Houseman and Montague Love.

Pensions to war invalids, orphans and widows have been increased in Hungary.

PLAYHOUSE HAS DOUBLE OFFERING ON STAGE AND SCREEN

Victorians have two more days to see the big combined bill of superior entertainment that the Playhouse Theatre is providing for its numerous patrons. On the stage, "Cave Man Stuff," a first-class musical farce, is delighting crowds, while on the screen, "Eve's Secret," with Betty Compson and Jack Holt, is the star feature. What did the serpent whisper to Eve? You'll be surprised when you discover Eve's secret. It is the story of a modern charmer and the man she dazzled.

Humor, dancing, music, able acting and excellent plot mark "Cave Man Stuff" a popular show. The big houses that have witnessed its presentation all week have thoroughly enjoyed the fine production. The dancing contributions by Doris Stark and Peggy Sullivan have made a firm impression with the patrons. Betty Compson, chic and charming, the apple of every man's eye, Jack Holt, back to a modern role, is her jealous, hot-tempered lover; both in "Eve's Secret" on the Playhouse screen. Secrets worth knowing are: The secret of success, the secret of long life, the secret of happiness and Eve's secret.

BEDTIME STORY

Uncle Wiggily and the Barrel of Fun

Copyright, 1926, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate
By HOWARD R. GARIS

Outside the grocery store, where Uncle Wiggily used to buy leaves of clover bread for Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy, stood a small, empty barrel. It was closed at both ends, but on one side, in the middle, was a round opening, called the bung hole.

Through this bung hole could be poured molasses, vinegar or cider—whatever it was desired to put inside the barrel.

"But just now there is nothing in it," barked the grocery dog, when Uncle Wiggily asked him about the barrel standing outside the store.

"Do you want that old barrel?" asked the rabbit gentleman.

"It's of no use to me," barked the grocery dog.

"Then I'll take it along," said Mr. Longears. "My forty seven little bunnies will have a barrel of fun! They'll roll it about, climb up on it, fall off, jump off and make up all sorts of games with it." As Uncle Wiggily pushed the empty barrel down the hill toward his hollow stump bungalow, he laughed and twinkled his pink nose, thinking what jolly times the little boy and girl bunnies would have with the old barrel.

There's nothing in the barrel, said the fox

Wiggily pushed the empty barrel down the hill toward his hollow stump bungalow, he laughed and twinkled his pink nose, thinking what jolly times the little boy and girl bunnies would have with the old barrel.

Rumbling, tumbling, bumping and stumbling, the barrel bumped its way along until it stopped at the bungalow. Nurse Jane, Mrs. Longears, Ambie, Scramble, Tingle, Tangle, Kamby, Pamby, and all the other little rabbits came out, thinking they heard thunder.

"It's just a barrel of fun I brought home for you," explained Uncle Wiggily. Scooter put his eye to the bung hole of the barrel and looked inside.

"Why, it's empty!" shouted the little boy rabbit in surprise.

"Yes," agreed Uncle Wiggily. "It's empty, but still I call it a barrel of fun, for you can have jolly times with it—rolling it around, climbing up on it, jumping off and all things like that."

"So we can!" cried Scramble, and he and his brother Ambie began to shove the empty barrel along. And then the little bunny boys and girls played with the empty barrel before and after school. During school hours the barrel stood on one end outside the hollow stump bungalow.

Now it chanced that the Fox and Wolf, hiding in the woods not far from where Uncle Wiggily lived, had seen the little rabbits playing with the barrel of fun. And the Fox said: "There must be something good in that barrel!"

"I'm sure there is!" growled the Wolf. "If we could get it out and take it away Uncle Wiggily would chase after us to get it back. We could lead him here to the woods and catch him—if we could only get what is in that barrel!"

"Let's try!" snarled the Fox. So, watching their chance, when Uncle Wiggily had gone to the store, and when the little bunnies were in school, the two bad chaps snaked up where the barrel stood. They shook it, listened to it and tried to look in through the bunghole. But they could see nothing and hear nothing. "There's nothing in the barrel," said the Fox.

"There must be!" barked the Wolf. "If I could only get my paw in through that little round hole I could feel it!" But his paw was too large for the bunghole, and so was the paw of the Fox. Nor could they stick their tails in, for they were fluffy and covered with hair like a dusting brush. Finally the Wolf said: "We'll ask the Skillers-Scallers-Alligator to come here. He has a tall long thin on the end. He can stick his tail in this barrel, he, take out what's inside and help us carry it away. Then we'll catch Uncle Wiggily!"

So the alligator came and thrust his long, thin tail into the bunghole. "I can't feel anything!" bellowed the "Gator, like a cow. "I think this barrel is empty!" Which it was. But when the "Gator tried to pull his tail out he couldn't, for it was stuck fast in the hole. "Oh! Wow! Ouch! This is a trick!" he cried. "You two tried to play a trick on me!" And away he ran, dragging the booming, empty barrel after him, fast to his tail.

Away ran the Fox and Wolf, too, trying to tell the "Gator they had no part in the trick. But the "Gator wouldn't believe them. And when Uncle Wiggily saw the "Gator running over the hill, with the barrel on his tail bouncing after him, they laughed harder than they had ever laughed before.

"I told you that was a barrel of fun!" said Mrs. Longears. But it was no fun for the bad chaps, though it served them right. So Mr. Longears got another empty barrel for the little bunnies.

Now should it happen, that the huckleberry pie doesn't crawl under the table to hide away from the chocolate cake, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and Tumble Tom.

TRIBUTE PAID TO WORTH OF ACTRESS

Row Between Betty Blythe and C. B. Samuelson in London Settled

London, April 29.—Betty Blythe, famous actress, and C. B. Samuelson, British film producer, which has been a feature in the London newspapers for nearly two weeks, was settled out of court to-day to the apparent satisfaction of everybody.

The film star apologized for the things she had said about Mr. Samuelson and the latter paid tribute to her ability as an actress.

Neither to pay the other any money under the settlement.

Betty Blythe sued the producer for £2,000 salary and expenses, which she asserted were due her for the filming in Berlin last year of Sir Rider Haggard's "She."

Mr. Samuelson entered a counterclaim asking the same amount for alleged breach of contract, libel and slander.

YOUNG VIOLINISTS IN DEMONSTRATION

Hundred Pupils of City Schools Give Concert at South Park

The demonstration concert held last evening at the South Park School auditorium proved an unusually interesting affair. Taking part in the thoroughly enjoyable programme were nearly a hundred pupils of the South Park School, together with the members of the violin classes in many of the city schools.

The first part of the programme, consisting of fourteen numbers, comprised ensemble, solo, duet and trio numbers by the violin classes, under the direction of George J. Dyke, who conducted the ensemble numbers throughout.

Some excellent results were obtained by the youthful violinists, their bowing and evenness of tone being particularly outstanding, demonstrating what has been accomplished in this direction in less than two years. Among the ensemble numbers mention may be made of "The Pixie's Carnival," Hadyn's "Melody in G," the hymn tune, "Regent's Square," the air from "Der Freischutz" and "Swanee River." The solo numbers were capably played by Fred Green and Alec Urquhart in "Graduation March," Reginald Edwards in the "Melody From Tyrol Mountain," May Gallo-way, Clara Howbottom and Elise Brayshaw in "The Blue Bells of Scotland," Elifion Jones, Harold George and Stanley Hodgkinson in "Two Welsh Folk Songs," and James Allan in "The Wearing of the Green."

Part two consisted of three part songs, by pupils of grades 4 and 5, two choruses by pupils of grades 4 and 5, seven folk dances by grades 5, 6, 7 and 8, the vocal solo, "Danny Boy," by James Petch, son of Victor Edmunds, Canada's celebrated tenor, the "Sword Dance" by Irene White, and the "Dramatized Lesson," cleverly rendered and performed by Henry Worthington and George Kickenale.

Mrs. Clifford Warr acted as accompanist to the violin classes in her usual qualifying manner, and during the interval Mr. King gave a demonstration of the new Orthophonic Victoria auditorium was filled to capacity by a seemingly delighted and sympathetic audience.

The members of the violin classes are as follows:—
South Park School—Joseph Wiper,

Kenneth Wiper, Mattie Thompson, Thomas Jones, Lewis Langlois, Eileen Langlois and Jack Aiken.
Bunside School—James Allan, Donald Taylor, Linton Queale, Alec Allan and Roy Gonnason.
Victoria West School—Teddy March, James Laird and Raymond Griffith.
High School—John Gilbert.
North Ward School—Mary Gallo-way and Clara Rowbottom.
Margaret, Jenkins School—Fred Green and Alec Urquhart.
Oaklands School—Elifion Jones.
George Jay School—Reginald Edwards, Ellen Brayshaw, Murray Griffiths, Laurence Wherry, Yakko Gakashashi, Gordon Greenwood, Porter

Charlton, Edna Maundrell and Edwin Chalmers.
Spring Ridge School—James Anderson.
Quadra School—Harold George, Stanley Hodgkinson, Elsie Lavis, Stanley Laver, Thomas Norrie, Thomas Ross and Richard Essler.

HEADQUARTERS OF PROVINCIAL I.O.D.E. TO REMAIN HERE

Mrs. David Miller Reports
2,176 Members in B.C.;
National Officer's Address

Victoria will remain the headquarters of the Provincial Chapter, I.O.
D.E., for another year, this decision being made at the annual meeting which opened in Vancouver yesterday.

Mrs. David Miller, provincial secretary, presented her report, showing that there were 2,176 members in seventy-eight primary and ten junior chapters in British Columbia. Summaries of proceedings by the provincial executive had been sent out and the report showed loss by disbanding of New Westminster Municipal, where there are only three primary chapters directly under the jurisdiction of the provincial group. Distinguished visitors entertained on the chapter had included Field Marshal
Viscount Allenby and Lady Allenby, Lady Byng and Lady Cowan. More than 1,500 letters had been sent out.
NATIONAL OFFICER SPOKE

Recalling the meeting of the National Chapter in this city four years ago, Mrs. F. N. Brotherhood, national organizing secretary, referred to the growth of the people of the province in this country, and declared a nation was only truly great where there were no children homeless, no old people in want, and this constituted an objective of the order. She mentioned the three great problems facing Canada at present—unification, immigration and attitude to the Motherland. In all of these she considered there was much scope for the work of the Order Daughters of the Empire. She said of British Columbia that its atmosphere was refreshingly imperialistic.

APPEAL FOR NAVY LEAGUE

The Rev. (Captain) G. F. Morris,
chaplain of Navy League of Canada,
gave an interesting and stirring address on the work of the league, and appealed for support from the order.
He spoke of the charter granted the league in 1914, which contained its aims and objects, and asserted the league was endeavoring still to carry out these aims through relief work, maintenance of sailors' homes, seaward training and propaganda concerning the sea. He thought it was time Canada took some steps to show its appreciation for the protection and service afforded by the British Navy and not to allow the whole burden to rest on the British public alone.

Mrs. Frank Stead gave a report for Echelon chapter 754 subscribers, 32 of which are in Vancouver. Miss Irene Terry presented the treasurer's and auditor's statements, showing receipts of $1,323 and expenditures of $1,442.

WORK IN INDIA

Municipal Chapter reports presented were those of Vancouver, Burnaby, Victoria, Chilliwack and Prince Rupert. Mrs. David Miller
read Mrs. Spencer's report on work in India, showing $133 contributed for this work, which included support of two I.O.D.E. chapters; though one has since disbanded, and the training school has been forced to close. Mrs. H. Hawshaw spoke for child welfare work, reviewing the efforts of various chapters along this line. She thought interest in this department had increased.

Luncheon was served by the Vancouver Municipal Chapter and seated at the flower-decorated head table were provincial executive members and members of Vancouver Municipal Chapter executive. Tea was served at 4:30 o'clock by regents of Vancouver Primary Chapters.

simple conditions. Just an envelope your name, full address and a stamp.
The leaflets desired will be sent immediately. These leaflets are designed to answer almost every possible question on the named subjects.
Readers should ask for the one de-

Children)"; No. 7, "Some Frequent Questions (Teething, Sleeping, Thumbsucking, Sitting and Walking, Training in Cleanly Habits, Periods of Nursing)".

Perseparation
Mrs. P. S. A. It is not at all unusual for a baby to persepare freely when taking the breast or bottle. He is lying quietly, cuddled in woollens, undoubtedly, and taking a bottle of hot milk, or else is curled close to his mother. One should not be alarmed by this. Your baby is large and fat and no doubt perspires easily.
This is really not the same as a "cold sweat."
Mrs. J. B. M.: A year-old baby is hardly old enough to wean entirely from the bottle. It is so difficult to get babies to take enough milk from a cup. Please do not put him on cow's milk now.
Certified milk need not be boiled.
He positively does not need a night bottle. He is tremendously overweight as it is. He can take one quart of milk daily now. You have guessed rightly. Babies who are wet constantly are practically always over-fed babies.
Mrs. C. M.: A seven-months-old baby weighing only fifteen pounds is a poor weight, though the bronchitis may account for a stationary weight.
Also the fact that the baby has had a poor appetite. At that your formula is too strong for both the weight and age. You are giving nearly a quart of milk a day which is just what a year-old baby should take. Twenty-one ounces is sufficient, the same amount of water and maltose as at present. The baby's appetite may be better when he is not being over-fed. Increase the amount of milk as he gains in weight.

JAPANESE BEAUTY TO MAKE DEBUT IN U.S. MOTION PICTURES

Miss Matsuno Yoeko, talented young Japanese actress, and a leader of her profession across the Pacific, arrived here yesterday morning aboard the Alabama Maru from the Far East on her way to Hollywood. Miss Yoeko is about to enter motion pictures. Already she has established for herself a reputation in her native land and has done a little work for the stage of the Pacific but that her first sight of this continent was one which she would never forget. Victoria, she asserted, was one of the most beautiful cities they had ever seen.

Miss Yoeko was accompanied by Tokushi Mizutani, her brother-in-law, who is Japan's premier playwright and who enjoys a popularity exceeded by none of his contemporaries in Japan.

Mrs. Mizutani was traveling as companion to Miss Yoeko. The three travelers passed through here early yesterday morning on their way to Seattle. They told The Times that this was their first experience on this side of the Pacific but that their first sight of this continent was one which they would never forget. Victoria, she asserted, was one of the most beautiful cities they had ever seen.

Mr. Frank Gibson of Seattle, who came over to attend the Snow Barrett wedding last evening, is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs.
G. A. Gibson, Prior Street.

Mrs. R. P. Butchart, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. H. A. Ross, left yesterday afternoon for Seattle to attend the garden show. While in the Sound City they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Alexander.

Count and Countess de Suzannet of Victoria, who are spending a few days in Vancouver, were the guests of honor at a dinner party given by Mrs. Julius Griffiths on Wednesday.

Mrs. J. Cox of Mudge Island, near Nanaimo, who came to Victoria to attend the wedding of her niece, Mrs.
McLaughlin, (nee Grayce Ledingham), is the guest of her sister, Mrs.
George Ledingham, Quadra Street.

Dr. and Mrs. R. J. Elvin of Vancouver, who were among the out-town guests present at the Ledingham-McLaughlin wedding last evening, are the guests of the latter's mother, Mrs. F. Foster, Poul Bay Road.

Mrs. W. R. Pooley of Kelowna, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs.
R. E. Hesse, Carberry Gardens, left last night on the Ruth Alexander for a six weeks' trip to California and was accompanied by Miss Gertrude Perry.

Miss Dorothy Chippendale of Alberni, who is visiting in Victoria as the guest of the Misses McEwan, Blanchard Street, will leave on Monday for Australia, where on her arrival her marriage to Mr. Darcy Holden will take place. Mr. Holden was formerly on the staff of the Pacific Cable Board at Banfield and was transferred to Sydney.

Mrs. J. M. Wood entertained yesterday afternoon at her home on Empire Avenue with seven tables of bridge and again this afternoon when the same number of tables were in progress of play. Yellow tulips were used in floral decoration in the dining-room, and in the drawing room yellow and pink tulips were artistically arranged.

The Misses Audrey and Eileen Bennett are enjoying a holiday, staying with friends south of the line.
The Misses Bennett have been engaged at the Playhouse Theatre since December, 1924, playing with the Evans; the Joseph Frank Morton and the Reginald Hinks Companies. Miss Audrey resigned two months ago, owing to ill-health;
Eileen, playing continuously until the present week.

The five hundred party held at the Liberal-Conservative rooms last evening proved an enjoyable event. The arrangements were under the auspices of Ward Three. The attendance was very good and the feeling of those present was that the parties should be continued each Thursday evening so that a social time might be enjoyed. Ward Four will have charge of the meeting on Thursday, and everybody is invited to attend
and join in the five hundred contest.

A quiet marriage was celebrated yesterday afternoon at the residence of Rev. Dr. Campbell Street in marriage
Mr. Herbert Helen and Miss Doris Leyland, both of Duncan. The bride was very pretty in a dark traveling suit with hat to match, and was attended by her sister, Miss Lilian Leyland, in a gown of grey tulletulle with picture hat. The bridegroom was accompanied by his brother, Mr. Leo Helen. Mr. and Mrs. Helen left by the afternoon boat for Seattle on a honeymoon, after which they will make their home at Duncan.

WAR MEMORIAL OF I.O.D.E. NEARS ITS FINANCIAL GOAL

B.C. Raises $49,396.69 of Its $50,000 Share in Educational Scheme

That the I.O.D.E. has not
"grown weary in well-doing,"
but that the Order is filling as important a place in peace time as it did during the years of 1914-1918 is evident from the excellent reports presented at the annual meeting of the Provincial Chapter in Vancouver to-day.

The educational work is especially valuable, and Miss A. B. Cooke, of Victoria, who holds the two offices of educational secretary and war memorial secretary for the Order in British Columbia, told of the achievements made along these lines by the various chapters.

WORK IN SCHOOLS

The Burnaby Municipal Chapter
among its other activities had arranged for a series of illustrated lectures on "British Mandates and How Britain Interprets Them," also one on "B.C. Ores," with exhibits, to be given in the schools. I.O.D.E. calendars and British magazines had been placed in the schools and Armistice Day fittingly observed. One chapter placed a sectional bookcase in the school as a war memorial.

In Chilliwack prizes had been presented to school children; a chapter had awarded an annual scholarship of $50 to the High School and gave a donation of $25 to the High School auditorium. Six prizes were given for essays on "The Armistice."

FIGHTING COMMUNISM

Steps had been taken to watch for the entry of Communist propaganda in the schools, the Department of Education also lending its support to this work. Through the Department every country school had been provided with a Union Jack, reported Miss Cooke.

Under the new National Chapter lending and traveling library scheme, British Columbia is to receive six libraries, which are to be returned to the National Chapter at the end of each year. The places selected for this year are: Vancouver Island, Nanaimo Bay and Nob Hill; Lower Mainland, Brackendale and Chehalis; Cariboo, Tatla Lake and Alexander.

Reference was also made by Miss Cooke to the coming visit of Professor Waugh of McGill University, with his illustrated lecture on Wolfe, FOR ISOLATED SCHOOLS.

In closing her report she observed: "After my talk with the secretary of the Public Library Commission, I cannot close this report without suggesting that, for the next year, we turn our attention to the isolated schools—the schools that have no books or pictures and little opportunity of getting them."

"Several chapters have done much of this work, but I would suggest that a concerted effort by the municipal and city chapters to see that as many as possible of these schools need such gifts will receive generous attention this year. The Provincial Chapter could get detailed information from the Public Library Commission, and the chapters could choose their schools and take a personal interest, which means so much more than just a gift now and then."

WAR MEMORIAL
The I.O.D.E. war memorial scheme and its progress in British Columbia was outlined by Miss Cooke in her annual report as secretary of this fund for the Province. Ten applications had been received this year for the I.O.D.E. Provincial Bursary. The following I.O.D.E. bursary holders are attending the University of British Columbia: Miss Sheila Phillips, Miss Annie Price and Mr. Franklin Levis, a fourth year; Miss Day Walker and Harry Wells, third year; John Williams, second year, and Alan MacDonald, first year.

Excellent reports were given of the progress made by former bursary holders.

Contributions received from the various chapters to the War Memorial Fund since the last annual meeting were given as follows: Burnaby Municipal, $186; Chilliwack Municipal, $182; New Westminster Municipal, $96.31; Prince Rupert Municipal, $13.50; Vancouver Municipal, $33.22; Victoria Municipal, $1,402.63; Delta Chapter, $68.25; Sir C. P. Wolley, $64.50; Mount Fernie, $35; Helen St. C. Stobart, $56; Allie, $306; Lady-smith, $16.50; Cowichan, $45; Chrysler, $80; Donald McDonald, $25; Maj. Robert J. Black, $20; Jack McMillan, $40; Alexander Mackenzie, $50; Malaspina, $145; Sir James Douglas, $15; Governor Seymour, $20; Ganges, $55; Porter, $20.50; Vimy Ridge, $150; Charles E. Seymour, $25; Mesina Ridge, $40; Sundries, $28.37; Arthur Chapman, $100, making a total of $3,829.68. A further $603.31 was needed to complete British Columbia's share of $50,000 towards the war memorial, and Miss Cooke made an eloquent plea for the chapter's assistance to this end.

HOUSE WEDDING IS PREVIEW CEREMONY

Miss Grayce Ledingham Becomes Bride of L. A. MacLauchlan

A pretty wedding at which only the immediate relatives of the bride's family were present took place last night at 9 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, 1136 Quadra Street, when the Rev. Dr. W. J. Shipprell united in marriage Grayce Myrtle, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Ledingham, and Lewis Alexander MacLauchlan, oldest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Duncan MacLauchlan, of Glasgow, Scotland.

The ceremony was performed under an arch of laburnum, white lilac and greenery erected in the reception room, and on the entrance of the bridal party Miss Gladys Ledingham played the wedding march.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was given in a smart dress of pale pink and mauve georgette and wore a handsome Brussels lace veil attached to the coiffure with a circlet of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was composed of bridal roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Beattie Middleton acted as bridesmaid and was dressed in a frock of peach-colored georgette and wore in her hair a bandeau of flowers in variegated colors.

Her bouquet was composed of orange blossoms and lilies of the valley. The groom was supported by Mr. R. A. Lipsey.

During the signing of the register Mr. W. E. Stenland, sang "The Dawn" and "Still as the Night," accompanied by Miss Gladys Ledingham.

Following the marriage ceremony a reception was held for which a large number of friends assembled to tender their congratulations and hearty wishes to the bride couple.

Mrs. Ledingham, gowned in black georgette over satin trimmed with white, was assisted in receiving the guests by Mrs. S. G. Clement, who wore a gown of black and white crepe de Chine and ermine wrap.

The supper table was centred with a large three-tier wedding cake and was presided over by Miss Lipsey, who was assisted in serving by Mrs. Gilroy, Mrs. Elvin of Vancouver, and the Misses Gladys Croft, Eunice McDonald, Beattie and Lillian Graham and Doris Taylor. Mrs. Edwards cut the cake.

Mr. and Mrs. MacLauchlan left on the midnight boat for a motor trip to Portland and on their return to Vancouver Island will reside at Chemainus, where the groom is connected with the Victoria Lumber Company. The bride is a graduate of the training school for nurses, St. Joseph's Hospital.

Her traveling dress was of taupe chiffon embroidered in medallions of deep blue silk, with which was worn a blue cloak to match and smart felt hat.

HUSBAND THOUGHT DEAD REAPPEARS

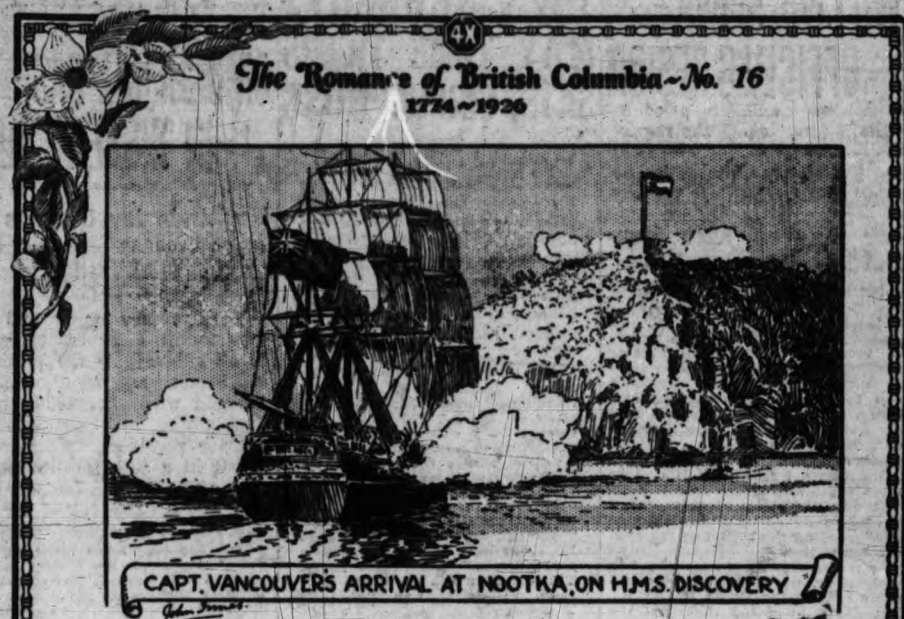

Insurance Company May Investigate Return of Alleged Suicide

Sarnia, Ont., April 30.—Mrs. Victoria Lebert Manley of Port Huron declares she will welcome the fullest investigation of the claims of a man who asserts he is her former husband, Adelard Lebert, who has been presumed dead.

"He is not my husband," Mrs. Manley said. An insurance company is reported to have paid out a policy for $10,000 in connection with the death of Lebert, who was presumed dead after a man who had committed suicide by leaping into a furnace at an oil plant here had been identified by Mrs. Lebert as her husband.

An investigation may be initiated by the insurance company. Stoney Point, Ont., April 30.—The man who claims to be Adelard Lebert, dead in the eyes of the law, sat in the kitchen of his brother's farmhouse on the Corber Side Road about one mile from here and with a bored expression on his face declared his lack of interest in any developments in the situation brought about by his return to his former home at Port Huron after four years' absence.

"I have no concern in what happens from now on," he said. "I have been advised my wife divorced me. In that case I have no claim upon her. She has a husband and I have no desire to take his place in my former home."

The third annual Rose Show of the Oak Bay Society will be one of the outstanding attractions for June. It is announced in plans now prepared by the society.

The exhibition is to be held in the banquet hall of the Crystal Garden on June 11.

Since its inception three years ago the Oak Bay Society has found a very real interest in the culture of roses in Victoria and nearby districts.

The officers this year are H. R. Beaven, president; His Honor Judge Lampan, Dr. W. P. Walker, J. J. Scriven, Dr. F. E. Smith, C. J. Prior, and Brig.-Gen. Dunbar, the executive committee. HOTEL LOBBY GOSSIP

EARL AND COUNTESS GO UP ISLAND

The Earl of Strathmore, retired Governor of Victoria, Australia, who with the Countess arrived here yesterday on the Aorangi from Australia, went up the island by motor-car from the Empress Hotel this morning to spend a short holiday in the Cowichan district. They will be the guests of General McEwan on his country estate there.

When they leave here, the Earl and Countess will go South through Seattle to San Francisco and Los Angeles, and then across to Washington before sailing for England.

BONUSED IMMIGRATION

The Earl, after his experience in Australia, has decided to view on state-aided immigration. "State-aided immigration has a tendency to attract the wrong class of people, who, with nothing to lose, are attracted by cheap trips," the Earl said. "That is the experience Australia has been having. If these state-aided immigrants succeed, well and good, but if they fail, they return and exert a bad influence on immigration generally."

Viscount Dunblow, their son, accompanied the Earl and Countess to this side of the Pacific Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Pharran of New Zealand, and Col. W. Ferris and Mrs. Ferris, who are of New Zealand, were at the Empress Hotel. They came in yesterday on the Aorangi and are staying for a short time.

DIVIDING $4,000,000 IN GOLD

John Little, owner of a 3,000-acre gold mine, has decided to divide the mine, about sixty miles from Juneau, Alaska, by a group of Seattle newspaper men and local mining engineers, according to Thomas Kirkland, head of the Kirkland Gold Mine in Atlin, who is at the Dominion Hotel to-day.

Kirkland said that operations at the Cheekoff mine have been gradually shutting down during the last couple of years, as the property is pretty well depleted, and now the machinery is being shipped to some other properties.

"They have been keeping it pretty quiet, but while the mine was producing it was like a gold mine for them," Mr. Kirkland said.

VISIONS OF RACING DAYS

With the warm weather and the holiday season coming on fast, one begins to think of horse-racing days and who should arrive on the scene at the Dominion Hotel this morning but W. J. Barrett-Lennard, the racing financial authority and auditor. He is just giving the preliminary "once over" here, but is yet unable to announce details of the racing organizations plans for British Columbia this summer.

HATES TO LEAVE VICTORIA

Cesar Dahl, who has been acting manager of the Empress Hotel during the last month while Herb Wilson has been recuperating in Vancouver from his operation, has decided to leave his post here, but is yet unable to announce details of the racing organizations plans for British Columbia this summer.

BIG TOURIST SEASON OPENING

The tourist season in Canada is developing year by year in a bigger and bigger way," Mr. Allerton said.

VICTORIA BOY RISES FAST

Another hotel man here to-day is Ernest Tribe, a Victoria boy, who started his hotel career here at the Empress Hotel a few years ago when he was steward's clerk, and has risen so that lately he has been virtually in charge of the Hotel Vancouver, the most important link in the C.P.R.'s hotel system. Reports in the Empire Hotel are that it was expected formal announcement of the appointment of Mr. Tribe as full-fledged C.P.R. hotel manager would soon be made.

D. Oakley, in charge of the money order department of the Dominion Express, is here to-day from Winnipeg.

SWISS LIKES HOLIDAY HERE

Emile Beha of Geneva, Switzerland, secretary of the Swiss Watch Company, who is on his way to Japan to develop the watch trade in the Swiss watches among the Japanese, will sail from Victoria to-morrow on the Empress of Russia. He has been enjoying a wonderful holiday here while waiting with three other trans-Pacific voyagers for their sailing, and tells of his visit this week to Butchart's Gardens.

B.C. FORMALLY PROTESTS END OF AIR PATROL

Sloan Tells Ottawa of Menace to B.C. Fisheries Should Aeroplanes be Withdrawn

Fears Invasion of Fishermen and Fish Buyers From Alaska If Enforcement Released

Fearing an invasion of northern British Columbia fisheries this year by United States operators from Alaska and the violation of fishery regulations by Canadian fishermen as well, Hon. William Sloan, Provincial Commissioner of Fisheries, telegraphed to Ottawa to-day, protesting emphatically against the proposed withdrawal of aerial patrol of British Columbia coast waters.

Only with the use of aircraft, hovering above the fishing fleet, can fishery protective measures be adequately enforced, Mr. Sloan declared in his telegram to the Federal Department of Marine and Fisheries. The aeroplanes, he asserted, during the last two years have resulted in splendid enforcement of laws designed to conserve the northern fish supply and had prevented foreigners invading Canadian territory.

ALASKANS FEARED

Withdrawal of the aerial patrol would be particularly serious at this time because of new restrictive regulations placed on Alaska fisheries by the United States Government. Mr. Sloan explained. These restrictions are causing Alaskan operators to look for other territory and unless the Canadian waters are closely guarded Alaskan fishermen and fish buyers are sure to descend upon them, taking Canadian fish home with them. In addition to this is the constant problem of preventing Canadian operators from breaking the regulations—a problem easily handled from the air because of the speed of aeroplanes in covering all parts of the fishing grounds.

STREET CARNIVAL BIG FEATURE OF MAYTIME FROLIC

Charleston Competition, Roller Skate Races and Street Dancing Will be Staged

The Maytime frolic, according to reports of the committee is going to surpass all previous records. The latest addition to the list of entertainments for the week-end holiday of May 24 is a street carnival.

Starting at 7 p.m. on Saturday evening, May 22, the carnival will be one continuous reel of fun, competitions and gaiety until midnight. This will be comprised of roller skating races, a Charleston competition and the introduction of King and Queen Carnival. It will end up on that night with a grand fancy dress frolic, prizes being awarded for the best costumes.

On Monday evening, May 24, King Carnival will receive his crown. This will be followed by a band concert and dramatic entertainment.

The spot upon which the carnival will be conducted will be that part of Yates Street bounded by Douglas and Blanshard Streets.

Other features of the Maytime celebration are progressing splendidly.

A tally board has been erected on Yates Street in front of the contest headquarters upon which the returns of the Queen election competition will be posted nightly.

It is likely that in conjunction with the street carnival an open air dance will be held on Yates Street. Charlie Hunt's squad of music makers will be on hand to render the selections for this dance.

The enthusiasm which is always evident in the street parade has spread up-island. The Cobble Hill Women's Institute will send down a float representing Mill Bay, according to latest reports.

UNIVERSITY PLAYERS OFFER "PYGMALION" AT ROYAL TO-NIGHT

Victoria Kiwanians Sponsor Presentation of Shaw Comedy

"Pygmalion" which makes its first appearance in Victoria at the Royal Victoria Theatre this evening, is one of George Bernard Shaw's most pleasing and delightful comedies. Presented as it will be by the Players' Club of the University of British Columbia, it will assure the theatre-going public of Victoria a production of excellent merit.

On its first appearance in the Old Country, Eastern Canada and the United States some years ago, at which time Mrs. Patrick Campbell played the leading role, it attracted a great deal of attention and meritorious support.

The Players' Club of the University of British Columbia since its inception eleven years ago has gained steadily in popularity and its players are recognized as possessing exceptional dramatic ability.

They have produced a large number of plays, most of which have been witnessed by Victoria audiences.

Among some of their past performances which have met with great success are "Barrie's Alice Sit-by-the-fire," "Wilde's 'The Importance of Being Earnest,'" Barrie's "You and I," "Merely Mary Ann," "Green Stockings."

The performance this evening is being given under the auspices of the Victoria Kiwanians Club and the pro-

Battling Nelson, Durable Dane, Was Jinx for Great Joe Gans

BATTLING
NELSON

THE BATTLES AND JOE GANS WERE CONTINUALLY DISPUTING
THE LIGHTWEIGHT
CHAMPIONSHIP

BUT THE DANE WAS TOO DURABLE AND
GANS, ON THE CROWN

By JOE WILLIAMS

The duels of Joe Gans, the great negro lightweight, and Battling Nelson, the durable Dane, form one of the epics of the prize ring.

Gans and Nelson each won (or claimed) the lightweight championship twice and scrapped for it three times before age, coupled with the Battler's relentless mauling, ruled Gans out of further competition.

Ring records show Gans took the title from Frank Erne in 1912. They also show he refused to make the 133-pound weight and popular verdict gave the title to Jimmy Britt of California, who subsequently lost it to Batt Nelson in 1915.

Gans finally quit his campaign among the welterweights and fought Nelson for the championship in 1916 in Goldfield, Nev., winning on a foul in forty-two rounds.

That stamped Gans as the real king of the lightweight class. But age was already beginning to make its inroads upon him. He was thirty-four years old—almost senility in the ring game—and had been a familiar figure in the roped circle for almost eighteen years.

The old gent with the soxys conquered the veteran Joe at San Francisco July 1916, when Nelson battered him into insensibility in the seventeenth round. Ring followers saw it coming almost from the beginning. The bulldog Dane, showing amazing stamina, forced the fight all the way, constantly swinging his arms, watching for an opening, battering at the guard of the colored fighter.

In the twelfth Gans was dropped to the canvas three times and took the maximum allotment each time. Gans made his last rally in the fourteenth, crashing into Nelson time and again with his famous short-arm wallop. They didn't have the slightest effect on the rugged Dane. Gans took his seconds when he went to his corner at the end of that skirmish. They sent him out again to the slaughter with encouraging comment.

Three times Gans mopped the canvas in the seventeenth before he was finally counted out. A left to the pit of the stomach sent him down for the third time.

After the fight Gans announced he was through. "One fight too many," he said. "Old age will tell."

But it didn't speak loud enough for Joe Gans. He met Nelson for the third time at Colma, just outside of San Francisco, on September 9 of the same year.

This time Gans lasted twenty-one rounds, but for the second time he succumbed to the battering-ram tactics of Nelson—and to the continued inroads of age.

Nelson fought the same fight he had employed so successfully in the July bout, working constantly on the body and carrying the fight always to his less vigorous foe.

Gans lost heart after the ninth round, when his punches appeared to have no effect at all on the white man. He continued to lose ground steadily until the twenty-first, when a rain of blows to his jaw and body put him on the floor. Glass-eyed, he watched Referee Eddie Smith count him out, too far gone even to know what was going on.

HE'S RED'S "BIG BERTHA"

Edd Roush is the "Big Bertha" of the Cincinnati Reds' attack. A consistent .330 hitter, Roush is largely responsible for most of the success the Hendricks entourage has against opposing hurlers. Roush can swat the apple, as they say in various baseball circles. He's also a nifty fielder. Edd has been in the main tent many years. But he still seems as good as ever. With the exception of a brief stay with the Giants, he's spent his entire big league career in Cincinnati. Roush has long been famous for his holdout proclivities. For quite a while Roush and unsigned contracts were synonymous. Holding out was an annual stunt with Edd. He usually won his case, too. Along with Max Carey, Zack Wheat and a few others, Roush rates as one of the best outposts fellows in the old circuit. He's a veritable ball-hawk; can haul 'em down most anywhere, so long as they are inside the playing confines.

Metochosin

Special to The Times

Metochosin, April 30.—The regular monthly meeting of the Metochosin Women's Institute will be held in the Hall on Wednesday, May 5, at 8.30 p.m.

In addition to general business, an address will be given by Mrs. Simmonds of Victoria on "Profitable Rabbit Breeding," an industry which is receiving considerable attention recently in the district, therefore the address should prove of particular benefit. Plans will be discussed for a strawberry-tee to be held in the season under the auspices of the institute. Afternoon tea will be served and a cordial invitation is issued to all interested to attend the meeting.

Milan, Liberal, South Huron, Ontario, speaking in the Commons yesterday afternoon, said he believed the Government should cultivate "the most friendly relations with our American neighbors" and with this end in view a representative of Canada at Washington should be appointed.

PRINCESS ENA ARRIVES HERE AFTER ACCIDENT

With the Salvage King alongside her the Canadian Pacific freighter Princess Ena arrived at the Belleville Street docks of the company at 4 o'clock this morning. The Ena struck Lowe Rock at the entrance to Esplanza Inlet a week ago. She managed to pull herself off the shelling rock and was beached in Queen's Cove.
 This morning part of the lumber cargo of the Ena was unloaded, the bigger part of it having been loaded on the whaling tender Gray at Queen's Cove and taken up to Skagway.
 Canadian Pacific officials stated this morning that considerable damage had been done to the hull of the Ena and she will be drydocked for surveying and repairing.

Twenty Countries Represented in Emigrants' Train

Winnipeg, Man., April 29.—Twenty nationalities were represented on the immigrant special which arrived here yesterday morning over the Canadian National lines with 425 passengers from the Doric.
 The unusual nationalities included on this train were those representing the following countries: Greece, Spain, Switzerland, comparatively few Belgians have been coming to Canada this spring, and yesterday's party of thirty-two is probably one of the largest of the season from that country.
 The 123 British were chiefly families settling in the West under the Empire settlement scheme, with twelve British boys, sent out by the Church of England army. Fifty per cent. of the arrivals had booked points West of Winnipeg, and the balance are being placed in farm work by the C.N.R. colonization department.

Packing Concerns Set Price For Raw Salmon

Astoria, Ore., April 30.—Following a conference of representatives of some fifteen fish packing concerns on the Columbia River, announcement was made yesterday that a decision had been reached to pay thirteen cents a pound for raw Chinook salmon with the opening of the commercial fishing season May 1. This represents an advance of one cent over the price paid last year.
 With the Columbia River Fishermen's Protective Union demanding sixteen cents a pound and "no compromise" the situation is uncertain. The union is scheduled to take final action on prices to-day.

Large Sum Voted For Marine Work

Washington, April 30.—Allotments totaling $45,225,450 for river and harbor improvements during the fiscal year beginning July 1 were announced yesterday by the War Department.
 They were provided for in the $50,000,000 lump sum appropriation carried in the annual army supply bill, $474,550 being reserved for contingencies.
 Funds are allotted to continue work on 252 projects, already authorized, on the Atlantic, Pacific and Gulf coasts, the Great Lakes and inland waterways and in Alaska and insular possessions. The allotments have no connection with the projects proposed in the $25,000,000 authorization bill now pending in the House.

CREW ALL RESCUED

Tokio, April 30.—The fishermen and crew of the Chichibu Maru, numbering 219 have been rescued from the wrecked vessel on the rocks off Paramushiro, north of the Kurile Islands. Safety of the men, for whom there was little hope felt, was announced in a dispatch to The Jiji from Hokkaido Island.

RAINIER PARK TO BECOME MUSEUM

Experts Will Show Nature Wonders to Scientists and Students

Longmead Springs, April 30.—Plans are underway whereby the exceptional educational resources of Mount Rainier National Park will be made readily available, not only to visiting scientists and students, but also to practically every one of the hundreds of thousands of people who will visit the park this season, according to announcement made by Park officials to-day.
 It has been found that practically every part of the park is of great interest in nature. It is the natural features of the old mountain, the glaciers, forests, wild flowers, and wild animals that attract them to the park, and the experience of the past three Summers has amply proved that any effort on the part of the National Park Service to help interpret these wonders of nature to them is greatly appreciated.
 The whole park is one vast outdoor museum and laboratory and it is to have a trained staff of naturalists in daily attendance to help the visitors enjoy it and learn its secrets.
STAFF TO BE ENLARGED
 Mr. Schome, the park naturalist, is to be a general assistant in the work, all of them University men with a knowledge of natural sciences, who are well qualified to serve as naturalists.
 Each of the larger automobile camps is to have a range-naturalist in charge who will answer the questions of his visitors, take them on short nature guide trips, provide camp-fire talks in the evening and maintain exhibits of wild flowers and other objects of natural history interest.

At Paradise Valley and Longmead Springs nature trails are being developed on which objects of interest are labeled, and small educational museums will be maintained. The trails will be taken daily, as during past seasons, on short field trips and each evening there will be an illustrated lecture on the natural features of the park that will help the visitors to see more and to appreciate better what they do see.

San Francisco, April 30.—Reduction by five hours of the transcontinental limited passenger schedules between San Francisco and Chicago and Los Angeles and Chicago was announced by three railroads here yesterday. The new schedules are to be put into effect in October.
 The Southern Pacific, Union Pacific and Santa Fe. The new train time will be 63 hours instead of 68 hours. An extra charge of $10 will be made for tickets on the new fast schedules.

WHALEERS ARRIVE AT SOUND CITY

Two Vessels Along With Sister Ships to be Reconditioned at Seattle

Seattle, April 30.—The whalers Bering and Diomed of the Vega whaling fleet which arrived in Seattle yesterday from Southern California, are to be reconditioned and provisioned here with their sister ships which came last week.
 Captain O. Paust, who is in command of the fleet, and B. R. Anderson, Seattle agent for the Vega Company, said to-day that the personnel of the whalers would be almost completely changed. The present commanders of the whalers, Anadyr, Bering, Celina and Diomed, together with the major portion of their crews are to be returned this week to their homes in Norway. Coming to Seattle from Norway to relieve them are forty-five Norwegian seamen and whalers, including four shipmasters, five gunners, an expert blacksmith and the relief members of the whaling crew.

Advices received here yesterday said that the United American liner Seokook will arrive Thursday from Northern Europe with approximately 1,500 tons of general cargo. She is to be discharged at Seattle.
 With 1,500 tons of Atlantic coast cargo for distribution here the Williams Steamship Company steamer Willhilo is due Wednesday. She loads lumber for her return voyage.

RUSSIA DISTURBING INFLUENCE IN CHINA

French Business Man Says Soviet Agitates Oriental People

That Russian influence undoubtedly caused much of the labor disorder in China, and that the agitation and feeling against the British interests there were fostered by the Russian Soviet was the opinion of J. Zakin, representing the Compagnie Generale de Commerce Agricole et Industriel, a big French importing house which passed through Victoria aboard the President Jackson on his way to Paris from the Orient yesterday morning.
 Mr. Zakin asserted that Russia and Japan probably had hidden interests in China at the present time and that many believed they were fostering the causes of Chinese warring factions at the present time.

Political relations between France and China were of the best, and trade was brisk, he said. To France China shipped vast quantities of tea and France in return shipped its products to China. He was interested in the wine and perfume exportation particularly, in the one direction and in the importation of tea in the other. China tea was used extensively in France, he said. It was from Hankow and Shanghai that the bulk of this produce was shipped.
 In the three months he had spent in the Orient Mr. Zakin had seen much to arouse his fears for the well-being of China. He believed that the trouble there would last indefinitely. It was impossible to say when it would be terminated. Union could only be brought about in one of two ways, he said. Either the country must unite to face a common danger or else one faction or the other would have to attain last supremacy by obliterating all the others. The situation was one which was far beyond the most able statesmen of the Orient.
 M. Zakin anticipates an early return to the Orient for he has connections there which may become strained on account of the unrest and political ructions.

VICE-PRESIDENT ON TOUR OF C.N.R. LINES

Winnipeg, Man., April 30.—H. J. Hungerford, vice-president in charge of operation of the Canadian National Railways, arrived here this morning from the East on a tour of inspection of the company's lines between Winnipeg and the Pacific Coast. He is accompanied by C. B. Brown, chief engineer of the operating department, and will be leaving for points west on Saturday.

SAN FRANCISCO SHIPPING

San Francisco, April 30.—Efforts are being made to raise the Shell Oil Company's barge Martine, which was sunk in a collision with the Associated Oil-tanker Frank G. Drum Wednesday, under the direction of Capt. S. Clark, salvage expert for the Red Star Tug Company. The vessel is lying off the entrance to Raccoon Straits with the stern resting on the bottom and the bow out of water. The extent of the damage cannot be determined until after the Martine is raised and the Drum has discharged her cargo.

Twenty-two vessels with a total net tonnage of 48,736 tons arrived here between midnight and noon yesterday.
 This is regarded as an exceptionally large number of vessels to enter in a twelve-hour period and as most of the arriving boats were large carriers it is believed to be a record for the port.

The N.Y.K. liner Korea Maru with 250 passengers aboard is scheduled to arrive here to-day from the Orient. The vessel has a large cargo.

Last Minute News on Stocks and Financial Affairs

New York, April 30 (By R. P. Clark & Co.)—Mixed movements were featured in the dealings to-day and while there was no particular change in the character of the news weak spots were uncovered and had a temporary influence in unsettling values, and while the call money rate was advanced to 4-1/2 per cent this was a month-end expectation and had but minor influence on the general trend. An improved demand for copper and petroleum shares propelled values higher in these groups and the advance was well maintained. Some weak spots, such as American Woolen issues, Marine preferred, Austin Nichols were affected by disappointed holders of long stock. The former by uncertainty over continuance of the preferred dividend outlook. Marine preferred was in supply of the Austin Nichols pressure was due to talk of a disappointing earnings report, which may make its appearance shortly. Through officials the company contend that earnings have been very satisfactory.

New York, April 30 (By R. P. Clark & Co.)—The Wall Street Journal's stock market edition this afternoon says: "The day's trading developed a session with many individual and specialty price movements. Oils and coppers were features of strength while there were various issues which were weak, including American Woolen, Marine and some of the minor motor shares. The big stocks like Steel, General Electric, General Motors, Mack and others gave ground, but reactionary developments did not really get into these issues. They showed substantial support underneath. Call money was higher owing to May first requirements. Coming upon a decline more than a half billion in total borrowings, the increase in brokerage loans was but minor. The progress toward settlement of foreign war debts is satisfactory. New terms were proposed by the French Government and Washington advisers stated that President Coolidge looked with favor upon them. Further negotiations are proceeding and it is understood that both the American and French Senates are nearing a working agreement. With this accepted the most important of the group of war debts owed this country are being settled. Constructive steps in international finance looking to a new broadening and strengthening of the gold basis on the continent are expected to follow and American bankers in this move are now abroad. Steps to be taken probably will include accommodations for stabilizing the franc."

CHICAGO GRAIN

Chicago, April 30 (By R. P. Clark & Co.)—Wheat sustained weakness in Liverpool caused a fresh break in prices early, but the market met stiff opposition as heavy buying developed, and rallied sharply into higher ground in the last hour. Some of the leading houses were aggressive buyers, the influence being independent firms in Winnipeg; the persistent reports of dryness in the American and Canadian northwest and the better disposal of premiums in various domestic markets. Liverpool closed 1/4 to 3/4 lower, most weakness being in the May. The critical labor situation in the U.K. was given as the main reason for the slump there. The trade became more concerned over the condition of Spring wheat and shorts were free buyers as a result. Movement of wheat from the country was fairly good, but demand picked up. Shipments of wheat from the Argentine this week totaled 4,902,000 bushels, compared with 4,223,000 bushels last week and 4,131,000 bushels last year. North American clearances totaled 4,600,000 compared with 4,591,000 bushels last week and 4,591,000 bushels last year. Stocks of wheat at Minneapolis for the week decreased 200,000 bushels. Weather conditions will be the dominating factor for the present.

Chicago, April 30 (By R. P. Clark & Co.)—Wheat was lower early, but developed over-sold conditions. Commission houses absorbed the surplus and shorts found offerings light when they tried to cover. The May-July difference narrowed slightly. Outlook for the new crop in Missouri, Indiana and Illinois reported as unfavorable. Export demand slow, with sales estimated at around 300,000 bushels. Forecast for scattered possible showers in North Dakota overnight, which led to some selling early. Commission house buying of May corn against sales of July at 5 cents difference developed considerable proportions, and there was generally covering by local interests when wheat rallied. Weather more favorable for all interior operations. The May-July oats spread widened to around 1 1/2 cents. Eastern cash demand fairly good.

But he was engaged very briefly, and Mary said, when he came out of Hilton's inner office, that was only a pretext to see her.

"Mary," he said, leaning over her desk, "you've had time to think it over now. Tell me that you didn't mean what you said to me yesterday."

Her fingers never once paused as they flew over her typewriter. "I meant it," she said shortly.

"Mary, you couldn't. You don't realize what you're saying. Listen, I was angry when that—that accident happened; so angry that I didn't even see the dog until it was too late. I had been saying things to you and you weren't answering me. I was sorry it happened—just as sorry as you were." He held out his hand pleadingly.

She paused in her typing and looked up at him. "You're not helping your case any by lying," she said coldly, and turned back to her work.

His face darkened and his fists clenched. He was about to make some angry retort, but he controlled himself. The door opened and Hilton came in.

"Oh, still here, Mr. Church?"

"Yes, I was just going. I'll be back later. Something more I wanted to take up with you." The door closed behind him.

Hilton said to Mary: "That's funny," he laughed. "He must be getting absent-minded. He came in to see me about a matter that we'd already gone over thoroughly by telephone."

"Oh, I beg pardon," he added hastily, his face coloring slightly. "I had forgotten you two were engaged."

"Did he tell you that?" asked Mary.

"Yes, said it wasn't generally known, but that you'd announce it later. Told it to me in confidence."

"Well, it's not true. At least, it's no longer true."

He whistled and then stuck his tongue in his cheek. Finally curiosity got the better of him. "You mean you—your broke off with him?"

"Yes—yesterday."

At that he stuck his hands in his pockets and whistled some more. Finally he said—and Mr. Hilton could be very amusing when he tried—"You see, Miss Lowell, I was getting all set to congratulate you. Now I congratulate you all the more."

With which enigmatic statement he walked out of the room, still whistling.

The only thing that worried Mary about breaking her engagement was her mother. Mrs. Lowell, with her fondness for the material comforts and her memories of a luxurious past, had found much to enthuse over when Mary told her she had accepted Samuel Church.

It would be a blow to her, of course. Mary knew that her mother had already installed herself, mentally, in a fine home, with servants to carry out her orders and a motor car to take her wherever and whenever she wanted to go. Now that dream was ended and Mrs. Lowell would have to try to reconcile herself to existing on the necessities with very few of the luxuries she craved.

Mary walked from her office to the water cooler, and while drinking she noticed the man known as Mac, sitting at his desk. A sudden resolution prompted her to walk straight over to him.

"Mac," she said, "you remember Mr. Rand who worked here?"

"Why, yes."

"What was that you told him about money being able to buy anything?"

His face reddened. "Why, why—," he floundered.

"You were wrong," she said softly.

BRINGING UP FATHER

CHAPTER XXIX

Jimmy Rand stood in his tracks where Church had left him. Bafflement was written in every line of his face. His hand was still half extended; he shoved it into his pocket.

"Well, I'll be!" he exclaimed. "What a nice boy he is. I swallow my pride and try to offer my congratulations and he snaps at me like a bear."

Chance, and the necessity of making some deliveries, had brought him to the neighborhood at this particular time. He had just come out of an office building and was about to climb into the truck when he saw Church, and thinking in view of what he had said to Mary Lowell that he owed it to her, at least, to show her a good sport, he had fought down his natural aversion to Church and offered his hand in congratulation.

He said aloud, his eye still on Church's retreating figure: "Well, at least, if you don't like me you're quite honest about it. I'm darn glad you feel that way about it. So do I."

Simple Remedy For Bad Stomach Gives Quick Relief

No Need of Strong Medicines or Diet—Famous but Simple Old English Recipe Keeps Stomach in Fine Condition, Banishes After-Eating Distress

If you are a victim of Stomach Troubles—Gas, Sourness, Pain or Bloating—you may have quick and certain relief by following this simple advice.

Don't take strong medicines, artificial stimulants or pull down your system by following unnecessary starvation diets.

Never hurry your meals or overeat of anything, but with reason most folks may eat what they like—if they will keep their stomachs sweet, clean and active and free from the souring acids that hinder or paralyze the work of digestion.

And the best and easiest way to do this is to follow every meal with a small amount of pure Bilegated Magnesia—a pleasant and harmless and inexpensive form of Magnesia—that promptly neutralizes acidity and keeps your stomach sweet and clean.

A week's trial of Bilegated Magnesia, which may be obtained from any drug-gist for only a few cents, will surely convince you of the great value of this old English recipe.

Be sure and get BILEGATED MAGNESIA—not a laxative. (Adv.)

Advice Given on Tariff on Autos

Ottawa, April 30.—Sir George Perley asked in the House yesterday afternoon if the Government would lay on the table of the House all the documents and letters relating to the "expert advice" the Premier had said the Government had received prior to the reduction of the customs tariff on automobiles.

Premier King, replying, pointed out there were several permanent civil servants who were experts in tariff matters. He referred particularly to J. A. Russell of the Finance Department, who had held conferences with the Departments of Customs and Trade and Commerce before any decision had been reached respecting the automobile tariff.

SAANICH GROWERS MARKET BERRIES THROUGH NEW FIRM

Canadian Fruit Distributors to Supply Prairie Organization

Winery Provides Profitable Market For All Logans Grown

With President H. C. Oldfield in the chair for the first time since his election, eighty members of the Saanich Fruit-growers Association met last night at Keating Temperance Hall, unanimously endorsing arrangements for prairie marketing of the small fruits, concluded by the directors of the Saanich and Gordon Head Associations with the Canadian Fruit Distributors Limited.

The brokers agree to advance $1.50 per crate when shipped and will receive a five per cent commission on the price realized in the prairie markets. A change in the constitution, making seven days' notice of meetings effective, in place of fourteen days, as hitherto required.

MEMBERSHIP PROBLEMS
Complaint being made that a number of members had not been notified of the meeting, Manager Tanner declared that all signatories of 1925 contracts had been notified and also sent questionnaires as to crates and straw required. Parties who shipped through the Association last year but have not signed for 1926 had been notified of the meeting save for a few who had expressed intention of withdrawal.

The directors were instructed to take legal advice as to the status of shareholders who have not signed for the present year and to take action to remedy conditions. Members not ship through the Association should not be allowed to take up the time of meetings called for advancing sale of the fruit of members signing shipping contracts.

WEEVIL BAIT COST
Weevil bait made of poisoned dry apple pulp will cost $250 per ton in Seattle and efforts are being made for rebate of the duty of $2.50 per ton. Success has resulted in one application of 100 pounds per acre in Washington, the members were informed. A forecast of production of this weevil poison in British Columbia was given, and was expected to bring the price down to about $12 per hundred pounds next year.

WINERY VALUED

To continue control of the Growers Wine Company Limited by the farmers the Saanich Fruit-growers Association will invest $500 in stock of the company in addition to the present holdings. The meeting agreed with speakers that the winery had been profitable to growers of loganberries having raised the price of berries to a profitable mark unknown previously and provided a market for greatly increased acreage. Manager H. E. Tanner showed that his acceptance of a seat on the directors of the Wine Company is in accordance with a unanimous resolution passed two years ago. He brought this matter up because of criticism of his holding office in the Wine Company.

The B.C. Wine Growers Company of Vancouver will contract for fifty tons of Island loganberries at $18 cents per pound, the Growers Wine Company of Victoria will take about 200 tons, the Sidney Canning Company is expected to require 25 tons, and the requirements of the jam factories assure marketing of all fruit produced this year by the Saanich and Gordon Head Association.

JAM PRICES
The strawberry jam fruit marketing situation was discussed, no contracts for fall fruit being yet concluded. A short Island crop was forecast, but Washington and Mainland conditions had prospect of establishing the price earned this year. Manager Tanner showed, on a motion by Thos. P. Gold, the directors were unanimously given authority to make contracts at the best prices available.

George Stewart recalled that some years ago a price of 20 cents per pound had been obtained, but the jam produced had not sold at the high prices and in the following year the farmers had to accept 7 cents per pound for their fruit. Straw prices were established at $15 per ton, delivered to the farms.

J. Lemieux, which said: "Picture producers of London are ready to furnish to the cinema of Quebec large quantities of very good modern moving picture films."

PROSECUTION IN PERJURY ACTION PRODUCES LETTERS

Hearing of Charge Against John R. Green Proceeds To-day

Further evidence in the charge of perjury against John R. Green, Victoria barrister, was presented in the City Police Court before Magistrate George Jay yesterday afternoon. Court adjourned at 4 o'clock and the hearing continued this afternoon at 2.15.

L. Harrison brought out new evidence for the prosecution and finished with all but two of the witnesses whom he will call.

Alan Douglas Ford, financial agent of the Cobble Hill Logging Company, K.C., finished his cross-examination of Abraham Dougan, Cobble Hill logger, who is a material witness for the prosecution. Mr. Harrison produced correspondence between the two men, and that a man by the name of Hudson owned another 1,000 shares. The company consisted of these four men, the letter stated.

Miss N. North has returned to Seattle after a visit to her mother, Mrs. North, Downey Road.

Miss Sholler has left for England via the Panama Canal, after a lengthy visit to her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Salmon, School Cross Road.

Mr. A. Bowman, of California, who has spent several months with Mr. and Mrs. Towers of Patricia Bay, has gone to Saskatchewan.

Mr. and Mrs. D. May, who have spent the Winter at Shore Acres, have now gone to live in Courtenay.

Mr. Philipson, of Chilliwack, has returned home after a few days spent with Mr. G. Sangster, Patricia Bay.

SUMMER SCHEDULE AT CRYSTAL GARDEN

After To-morrow New Rules Will Prevail; Bathers' Entrance Open; New Times

With the first day of May, to-morrow, the Crystal Garden will revert to its Summer schedule. Commencing Saturday bathers may use the pool from 7 a.m. until 11 p.m. instead of 3 to 11 as heretofore.

The promenade will be open to the public from 9 a.m. until 12 p.m. On Sunday both the promenade and the bathing pool will be in use from 2 until 5 p.m. The children will have their usual special hours on Saturday from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

During the Winter months the bathers have used the main entrance to the building to gain access to the pool. In future the side bather's entrance will be used.

To give the public in every way an efficient service a number of adjustments will be made by the management. These concern particularly the keys of lockers and dressing boxes. "Gross carelessness by the general public is causing an almost unbelievable loss in this direction. Bathers, having finished with their boxes or dressing rooms, have a habit of neglecting to return their keys to the bath-office, sometimes carrying them away unknowingly in their pockets. Others leave them in the boxes where they may fall on the floor and be lost. When it is realized that these keys have to be purchased at a cost of thirty cents each and that within the last month sixty-seven keys have been taken away it can be understood why the company wishes more care to be taken in regard to this matter. A deposit on each key taken from the bathers' office is being seriously considered, this to be refunded upon return of the key.

The general aspect of the dance room and banquet hall has been greatly improved through its recent painting and decoration. The excellence of the orchestra playing for the dances has added greatly to the popularity of these functions. With the palms and other plants of the gardens reaching maturity the wonder palace is now at its best.

Canadian Duty On U.S. Magazines Is Urged by M.P.

Ottawa, April 30.—A duty on United States magazines entering Canada was advocated in the House yesterday afternoon by H. C. Hocken, Conservative, Toronto West Centre, speaking on the budget.

"The tremendous importation of United States magazines makes it impossible for Canadian magazines to exist," he declared. "The Canadian people are being Americanized by their reading matter more than by all other things put together," he said.

More than 25,000,000 pounds of advertising was being brought into Canada annually through the medium of United States periodicals. As a consequence, United States products were being kept before the eyes of the Canadian purchasing public.

He expressed the opinion that the youth of Canada were more familiar with the name of President Coolidge than with that of Premier King. A strong Canadian periodical press should be built up.

MacNeill Ceases Secretary's Work For the G.W.V.A.

Edmonton, April 30.—Announcement of the acceptance of his resignation as Dominion Secretary of the Great War Veterans Association was made by C. G. MacNeill at a luncheon given in his honor by the local branch of the Association yesterday. Advice had reached him since his arrival in Edmonton, Mr. MacNeill explained, that his desire to retire from his duties, first expressed to the Dominion Command in December last had been finally recognized.

Further evidence in the charge of perjury against John R. Green, Victoria barrister, was presented in the City Police Court before Magistrate George Jay yesterday afternoon. Court adjourned at 4 o'clock and the hearing continued this afternoon at 2.15.

L. Harrison brought out new evidence for the prosecution and finished with all but two of the witnesses whom he will call.

Alan Douglas Ford, financial agent of the Cobble Hill Logging Company, K.C., finished his cross-examination of Abraham Dougan, Cobble Hill logger, who is a material witness for the prosecution. Mr. Harrison produced correspondence between the two men, and that a man by the name of Hudson owned another 1,000 shares. The company consisted of these four men, the letter stated.

Mr. Higgins, cross-examining witness, asked whether he had ever held a mortgage on logging equipment of the Cherry Point Logging Company Limited. Witness said he had. The mortgage had been sold to the Cobble Hill Logging Company on the advice of Mr. Green, witness declared.

Mr. Higgins referred back to the letter produced by the prosecution in which defendant Green had alluded to the ownership of shares in the Cobble Hill Logging Company. He asked witness if he had ever inquired as to whether the information in this letter were correct. Witness said he had never bothered. It had not interested him, he said.

Mr. Higgins produced a promissory note in favor of Mr. Ford, signed by members of the Cobble Hill Lumber Company and defendant Green. When the Cobble Hill Logging Company took over Mr. Ford's mortgage on equipment, Mr. Higgins asked, had witness received any consideration? Mr. Ford said he had been given $500 in cash by Mr. Green and a house on Elford Street.

SOLD HIS MORTGAGE
Witness said he sold his mortgage because he had not got anything on it and because he never expected that he would. Mr. Higgins suggested he had been paid. Witness said he had not. Mr. Higgins insisted that he had got $500 and a house. Witness said he still had the house. Mr. Higgins thought he should be satisfied. Witness said he was not. He realized he could claim nothing on the mortgage, however, as Mr. Higgins suggested, for he had sold it. Since he had sold it, Mr. Higgins said he must have been paid. Witness still maintained he had not been paid. He had got something, he said, but nothing like full value.

Mr. Higgins asked witness if he had ever tried to get evidence against Mr. Green. Witness said he had not. Mr. Higgins wanted to know if he had ever said anything about "getting even" with Mr. Green. Witness said he had not. He added that he had certain evidence offered to him but that he had refused it. He had not been caught, he said, laughing.

WAS FIGUREHEAD
Walter P. Hall, railway mail clerk of Nelson B.C., named as one of the shareholders of the stock in the Cobble Hill Logging Company, took the stand in answer to questions from the prosecution said he had never paid any money for the shares he had held in the company. He had been a student in Mr. Green's firm at the time the company was formed. He had been nominal secretary of the company, he thought. He believed that the shares had been assigned to him for the purpose of incorporation.

On leaving the firm he had endorsed over his shares to someone else. He had a recollection of endorsing them over in blank. He may have endorsed them to some individual, however, he admitted.

Mr. Green had told him at the time that his shares were of no value but that some time they might be worth something, witness said, in answer to Mr. Higgins. Mr. Higgins asked whether witness remembered Mr. Green remarking that witness had treated his mother well while discussing the matter of the shares. Witness said he could not recall the incident but that it might have happened.

Before adjourning for the day, Mr. Higgins asserted that he would not wish to recall any of the witnesses who had given evidence already.

Most of the witnesses were bonded over for higher court proceedings in case they were required.

age limit to sixty-five years for men and sixty years for women and raising the amount of pension from the proposed $20 to $30 a month, are suggestions advanced by the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees in connection with the old age pension bill now before Parliament. Representations to this effect are being made to the Government groups in Parliament this week.

It is proposed by the railwaymen that provision be made for a periodical revision of the amount of pension in accordance with the variations in the cost of living.
